GOVERNOR GEARY, on Tuesday evening was nitiated as a Good Templar, in Washington odge No. 1, Harrisburg. There was a large ttendance of the members of the order on e occasion, the lodges of the neighboring wns being all represented.

T seems to be understood that President hnson will visit Boston, next month, and sist the Masons in the dedication of their new mple. If he goes to Boston he is expected to tend his journey to other parts of New England, and visit Frank Pierce.

IN Cincinnati, Sunday last, Archbishop Purll, in laying the corner stone of the Jesuit's . Xavier College, took occasion to anathemaze the whole structure of the Catholic Institte,—an edifice, he said, which had been built nder the pledge that it should be placed under e control of the Jesuits, a pledge that had t been redeemed, and consequently the Institte had proved a failure. And furthermore, e building had been prostituted to base uses. had become a place for frivolous and obscene ays, such as Faust and La Favorita. And t a short time ago Judge Stallo, who had en raised a good Catholic, and taught in the hool of the Jesuits, but who had turned his ck upon the God of his fathers, introduced endell Phillips there to assail God and reion.

he Condition of South Carolina.

The intelligent correspondent of the Boston lvertiser, writing from Charleston, gives the llowing deplorable picture of the condition of uth Carolina: "The condition of South Carna is most deplorable. Nothing but actual servation could show how thoroughly the ate was devastated during the last six months the war. We of the North all know, of urse, in a general way what was done by erman's army, but the far-reaching extent of work no words can make fully evident. The rk of the rebel army when it evacuated arleton and fell back toward North Carolina s as savage and complete, though not as de spread, as that of our own, and far more nton and causeless. There is destitution d suffering everywhere. Ask any man from e interior whom you meet, and he can give u proof from his own personal knowledge—nilies in his own neighborhood, white as well black, and black as well as white, half a zen persons, likely enough a dozen, possibly score, who have not tasted meat for weeks, d are living on the charity of corn given by ighbors only less needy than themselves, or rations furnished by the bureau agents. The uation in some counties is much worse than others, but from one end of the State to the er, there is need of immediate supplies from oad. The people don't ask for meat or clothg—just now they will be devoutly thankful corn and bread.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

In the case of Thomas Leis, charged with the urder of George Ellers, in the Court room, at hiladelphia, last December, the jury Wednesay night found a verdict of "not guilty," on he ground of insanity. This verdict was aplauded, for it is generally understood that llers had seduced the daughter of Leis some nonths before the murder. Leis was subseuently discharged.

A Baltimore dispatch of yesterday says: The arge commission house of William Crighton Son has suspended payment. The liabilities ill probably reach two hundred thousand dolars. It is supposed they will be able to comromise and resume business again. They vere among our most active and influential nerchants. Other failures are also rumored, nd more are apprehended. The money market s tight, and some fear a serious crisis is aproaching.

All the banks in New Orleans have sustained eavy drafts, consequent on the financial roubles prevailing there. A heavy run was made Wednesday on the City National Bank, nd its condition became at one time quite criteal, but three private capitalists came forward nd advanced money enough to pay all denands.

The Republican State Central Committee, of Kansas, met at Topeka, Tuesday, for the purpose of arranging for a canvass of the State on the platform of impartial suffrage, when it is said, several negroes, who participated, expressed themselves as bitterly opposed to female suffrage, and considerable dissension ensued between the friends of the two questions.

A Herald sensation announces that England designs to seize Cuba in the event of any difficulty with Spain, and endeavor to retain the Island as a base in the Gulf of Mexico.

A Dublin, Ireland, correspondent alleges that in 1865 the Fenian executive in New York remitted large sums of money to Ireland, in the shape of drafts drawn by the Belmonts on the Rothschilds. The British Government embargoed the bills and directed the Rothschilds not to pay them, which was done. A bill drawn for two thousand pounds, to be raised for the defense of the prisoners, with others, when refused payment in London, was returned to New York, but the Fenians in Ireland allege that the brethren there have never been able to recover the gold from the Belmonts. The Fenian organization in Ireland is said to be in working order, and unimpaired in force.

THE COMING CANVASS.

Appeal From the National Union Committee.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The National Union Committee to-day issued an appeal to the Republicans of the country for assistance and co-operation. In this auspicious crisis of the country, it is deemed of the highest importance that the Republicans of every State should immediately reorganize for the remaining elections of 1867, preparatory to the coming Presidential contest, especially in the States which have never before recognized as the only just basis of government the equal and inalienable rights of man. They say they desire to prosecute a systematic and thorough canvass of the Southern States by the most efficient speakers of both races, and to second their efforts by the distribution of documents enforcing the principles, policy and aims of the Republican party. They therefore appeal for aid directly and personally to the party, asking the rich to give generously and the poor to give what they can afford. All letters and contributions are to be addressed to Gov. Marcus L. Ward, Chairman and Treasurer, Newark, N. J.

THE MOBILE RIOT.

Further Particulars--Investigation Postponed on Account of the Excitement--United States Troops Still Posted Throughout the City.

NEW YORK, May 16.—The Herald's special says of the Mobile riot: The leader, David Files, who fired the first shot at Chief of Police Carpenter, is the only one arrested. It is said he aimed directly at Judge Kelley. He was held to bail this morning in five thousand dollars, by Mayor Withers, but has not yet obtained bonds. It is certain that the attack on the negroes was continued for a considerable distance from the scene of action, as many were shot five or six squares off. Shots were fired from the roof of a store kept by Mr. Wolf, directly opposite the stand, and from the windows of a house kept by a man named Brooks, at the corner of Royal street. It is believed here that shots were fired from the side windows of John Forsyth's house, editor of the Register, which overlooked the stand. I cannot vouch for the truth of this, as I sat in front of the window, and the balls must have struck behind me. The excitement to-day is so great that the investigation is postponed, and the Mayor and Colonel Shepperd will make a rigid inquiry into the matter. The United States troops are still posted throughout the city, a squad occupying the front of the Battle House.

MOBILE, May 16.—A large and very harmonious meeting of whites and blacks was held this evening. Speeches were made by Hon. Alex. McKinstry, Major St. Paul of the Times, and others. The following resolutions were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, At a meeting on the night of May 14th, there were disturbances and disorders resulting in most lamentable consequences; therefore, be it

Resolved, First, That we deeply deplore the unfortunate occurrences which took place at said meeting, and desire to express in the strongest terms our disapprobation of them.

Second, We are of opinion the disturbances of said meeting were wholly unpremeditated, and the result of accidental excitement, to which all large assemblages are subject.

Third, In our opinion our people are not disposed to impede in any manner the full exercise of free speech to all and every class of persons.

Radical Convention--The Impeachment Trial.

NASHVILLE, May 16.—The Radical Convention to nominate a candidate for Congress in this district, met in this city to-day at the capitol. A division occurred in regard to the admission of delegates from Wilson county, whereupon the supporters of John Lawrence seceded. They held a meeting at the market house, and nominated him as a candidate. The delegations that remained nominated John Trimble. The great mass of the delegates were negroes. Lawrence is from Ohio, and has been here in the employ of the Freedmen's Bureau some time. Trimble is a native Union man. The contest between them will be determined by the negro vote.

But little progress has been made in the Impeachment Court. Two witnesses on the part of the prosecution were examined to-day.

FENIAN HEAD CENTER STEPHENS ENJOYING HIMSELF.

Mr. James Stephens, late moving spring in the Fenian insurrection, paid a visit to the Paris Exhibition during the last week in April. While two of his dupes were sentenced to death at Dublin, the reputed head of the Fenian movement is tasting of the good things and enjoyments of life. It really would almost seem as if the C. O. I. R. is not born to be hanged, or else he has a very long tether.

TERRIBLE MILITARY INVENTIONS.

The Progres, of Lyons, publishes a letter from a chemist of Marseilles, who suggests a mode of opposing the needle guns by a Greek fire he has invented. He says:

To give an idea of the efficacy of my discovery, I declare, and am ready to prove, that I can, at a distance of 1,000 metres, envelope an army of 100,000 men in a sea of flame, within less than five minutes. If a town has to be taken by assault I have no need of a Rotopschine, as I can set it on fire in very nearly the same period. In a naval battle I would run into the enemy, and in fifteen seconds cover all the deck of the vessel with a torrent of flame which would burn the rigging, penetrate between the decks, and instantaneously stifle all the crew. In an attack on a seaport, I could burn the town and arsenals within range with the rapidity of lightning. With such means no war is possible, as neither victors nor vanquished would return from the field of battle. As to the fortress of Luxemburg, the subject of dispute at the present moment, I undertake to rid it of its garrison in a quarter of an hour.

The Progres adds that if there is no exaggeration in the above description, such an invention would certainly put an end to the war.

The gun which the French are making such a noise about is said to be terrible in its effects. Herr Struve, a well known German republican, states that it was offered to him seventeen years ago, but he had no money to purchase it. He saw it in operation in London (!) in 1849, when a 2-pounder discharged three hundred balls in a minute, while another, a 12-pounder, threw from 50 to 60. Ignition is caused by means of a tourniquet, very much like the handle of a coffee mill, set in motion either by hand or by steam. There is neither rebound nor report, nor even smoke. The barrel not becoming heated, the machinery may be in full activity for hours, spitting balls with a continuity similar to that of the water issuing from the hose of a steam engine.

QUEEN VICTORIA AS A PEACE-MAKER.

The Paris papers gives some particulars of the personal efforts of Queen Victoria to settle the Luxemburg question without a war. The Queen wrote to the Emperor Napoleon before writing to the King of Prussia, and used the arguments most calculated to divert him from the warlike projects ascribed to him by public opinion. The Journal de Paris says:

This letter, impressed with the religious and almost mystic sentiments which predominate in the Queen's mind, particularly since the death of Prince Albert, seems to have made a deep impression on the sovereign who, amid the struggles of politics, has never completely repudiated the philanthropic theories of his youth, and who, on the battle field of Solferino, covered with the dead and the wounded, was seized with an unspeakable horror of war.

The Emperor replied in a letter, which had the best effect on Queen Victoria, and on her principal advisers, for he protested against the schemes attributed to him, and against all idea of territorial aggrandizement for the advantage of France. He moreover declared, "with a great elevation of language and ideas," the complete disinterestedness of his policy on the recent occasion. He said, however, that the question, placed as it was, had become one of national honor to France; but he left it clearly to be understood that when once settled—that is, when the fortress of Luxemburg was evacuated—France would be disposed to give up all thought of aggrandizement.

It was on receiving these conciliatory declarations that the Queen addressed herself to the King of Prussia. The family ties which unite the two reigning houses, the personal sympathies which, as the Journal de Paris says, Queen Victoria, in opposition to some of her advisers, has always shown for the cause of Germany since the beginning of the question of the Duchies, are known; but, in any circumstances, Her Majesty's sentiments would have made a serious impression on the Court of Berlin. By a lucky coincidence, the letter written to King William on the present occasion reached him at the moment when M. Bismarck experienced a deception, the more painful that it was unexpected—namely, that Russia was not so favorable to the prospects of the Prussians as he has reason to suppose. Prince Gortschakoff has clearly manifested the intention of the Russian government not to engage itself with any of the parties in the commencement of the war, but reserved itself to intervene at a later period, whenever the movement seemed opportune. This fact made M. Bismarck seriously reflect on his situation. The counsels of the Queen of England found not only King William, but his Minister, in a disposition less warlike than people imagined, and it was then, with the prompt decision which characterizes him, that M. Bismarck suddenly modified his policy, in a pacific sense, though probably he will astonish the world by some new change should circumstances favor him.

FROM ST. LOUIS.

A Swindling Firm Broken Up--Penalty of Adultery--Impeachment Trial.

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—Charges of fraud and swindling have been made against Wiggin & Crowther, dry goods dealers of this city, and one of the members of the firm arrested. It seems they bought a large stock of goods in New York and Boston on three and four months time. These goods were sent to Philadelphia and Cincinnati and sold under the hammer for cash. Large amounts were also sold at auction here. They borrowed several thousand dollars on call a short time since, and made an assignment and closed doors. Wiggin was arrested, and Crowther fled the city. Wiggin was released on bail, but at once re-arrested by his Eastern creditors.

Aug. Kow, who stole the wife of Beerbuch, of Cleveland, and brought her to this city some time since, was tried yesterday for adultery and sentenced to six months in the county jail and a fine of $300.

The impeachment trial of Judge King began in the State Senate yesterday, but nothing important transpired. There was barely a quorum of Senators present.

The liquor store of P. W. Schneider was entered by burglars last night, the safe blown open, and a considerable sum of money and many valuable papers stolen. The dry goods and clothing store of Ottmer & Schulze was entered and robbed of about $500 worth of goods. The produce store of Leffert & Co., and the leather store of Shedtz & Kerr, was also entered but the thelves obtained no booty.

The charges against Judge King, who is being tried before the State Senate with a view of impeaching him, and in substance that he instructed a grand jury that where crimes and misdemeanors had been committed by persons while in the regular or irregular confederate service, such persons could not be indicted or punished; that he dismissed the grand jury in Clay county without cause, and suspended the Sheriff; that he ordered the Coroner of said county to summon a grand jury of conservative men, no Radicals; that he issued writs of mandamus compelling the Board of Appeals in said county to register as qualified voters persons who had been rejected by said board, and that he instructed a Grand Jury in Clay county that no bills of indictment could be found against persons who might be charged with perjury in falsely taking the oath prescribed by the Constitution. The respondent sets up a general denial to each of the allegations, and explains at length the circumstances surrounding his judicial action.

A SLIGHT RAILWAY IMBROGLIO.

The Late Convention at Cleveland--What was Done---What was Attempted---The Baltimore and Ohio R. R. View of the Matter.

[From the Baltimore Gazette.]

The Railway Convention which assembled at Cleveland on the 8th instant was one of the largest, and promised to be one of the most important of the kind that has ever convened. No less than twenty-two Western roads were represented, besides the Boston, Worcester and Western, the New York Central, the Erie and the Pennsylvania Central. The main questions under consideration appear to have been the same which were discussed at the meeting of the great trunk lines last summer. An effort was made to do away with the fast freight system as now conducted by private parties under contract with certain railroads. It is a parasitical system, injurious alike to the interests of railroads and shippers. It was also proposed to abolish all free passes given on account of freight received, and an attempt was made to establish regular rates of transportation, especially on certain leading articles.

The interests of the different companies were deemed so various and their views were so widely apart, that it was soon found there was little hope of harmonizing the conflicting elements. After a stormy debate, the Convention adjourned, the same day that it met, without having effected anything, many delegates even having left before the close of the session.

There was, however, one resolution adopted, or rather voted upon by a portion of the Convention, of so partisan a character that it cannot fail to attract attention throughout the country generally. It was a resolution proposing to require pre-payment of all freights shipped via the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, unless this road should agree to certain terms, dictated in fact by other roads.

We do not suppose that a resolution so passed will be regarded, even by the roads which agreed upon it, for any length of time, if at all. Even if it should be, the interests of shippers to ship by the road which offers them the shortest, quickest and cheapest route to the seaboard is so manifest that trade will force itself over this great road in spite of the petty inconveniences created by the jealousies of ill-tempered rivals.

Since the establishment of its Lightning Express the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad has brought the great markets of the West and East much closer together, in point of time, than they have been at any previous period, and it has afforded to Baltimore advantages decidedly superior to those of any other seaboard city. By recent improvements, the transfer of freights across the Ohio, which formerly involved labor, expense and delay, has been greatly facilitated. Heavy cars are now run directly upon boats, and freight is thus transferred promptly and without breaking bulk to and from the tracks of connecting lines. Where transhipment is necessary, it is done by means of shuts and other necessary appliances, in the most expeditious manner. Grain, provisions and bulky articles which were formerly forced over other routes will now seek other channels, while the saving of time effected by these improvements in the transit of merchandise generally, and the almost total absence of that frequent re-handling which is so injurious, must give this route great advantages over the shorter and more broken roads of its rivals. An additional number of cars has already been placed upon the Central Ohio division of this line to meet the largely increased trade which Baltimore may fairly anticipate from the extensive facilities and advantages thus offered to Western produce men and merchants.

Since the close of the war Virginia, the Carolinas and Georgia especially, as well as other Southern States, have depended to a considerable extent upon Baltimore for their supplies. This demand will not only continue but will doubtless largely increase with the returning prosperity of that section. Baltimore must become a large Southern market for Western supplies, and as trade brings trade, so it must become a great centre for the sale of Southern products and the supply of Southern wants. The inauguration of the Baltimore and Liverpool line of steamers and the proposed line of Baltimore and Bremen steamers, the contracts for which have been made, are but links in the great chain which binds Baltimore more firmly to those States with which she is already bound by interest, by sympathy, and by common suffering. While these lines are undoubtedly, if we may so call them, seaboard extensions of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad, and while they will be used extensively for the conveyance of produce directly from the Western States to European ports, they must also be of great advantage to the Southern trade of Baltimore for the importation of European merchandise. The same enterprise which enables us to make our city the cheapest market for the Southern purchasers will also make it an excellent one for Southern sellers, and at no distant day we may expect to see our several lines of fine steamers, now running between this and Southern ports, conveying from hence not only domestic produce but large amounts of foreign goods, and bringing in return Southern staples, not only for home but for European markets. We write somewhat in the dark as to the true meaning of this Cleveland resolution, but does it not after all look much more like a petty annoyance excited by the rival jealousies of the Pennsylvania and New York lines, than a proposition emanating from Western roads whose true interest undoubtedly is to find the cheapest and best markets for the produce of their States?

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, May 16, 1867.

The Injunction Cases.

The Supreme Court to-day dismissed the originate bill on behalf of Mississippi, and directed against General Ord, to restrain the enforcement of the Reconstruction act, on the same ground as stated in the Georgia case, that this Court had not originate jurisdiction. It also dismissed the amended Mississippi bill for the same reason. This was filed a few days since, and was finally argued yesterday. This ends all attempts by judicial process in this Court to prevent the enforcement of the reconstruction law. The whole question is likely to come up again at the December term of the Court on regular appeal through the lower courts, in which event the Supreme Court will have appellate jurisdiction, and thus open the merits of the whole question. Test cases will be made in one or more of the Southern States, and by some of the counsel engaged in these just discussed.

Title to a Railroad.

The Judiciary committee did nothing to-day with the impeachment investigation, but took up the question of title in the Kansas branch of the Union Pacific railroad, which they were directed by the House to investigate. Two parties claim the road, and as the Government advances its bonds on the completion of certain sections, the ownership becomes a matter of no little interest to them. The issue not having been settled by the courts, Congress directed its Judiciary Committee to examine the law and the facts.

Louisiana Registration.

A letter from New Orleans says that returns from registration in Louisiana show that but very few white people are being registered. In St. Charles Parish, for instance, the registry stands 345 colored to 6 white; in St. Bernard Parish 300 colored to 80 white.

Distribution of Seeds and Plants.

Gen. Sheridan has issued the following order: The boards of registers throughout this command are requested to forward to these headquarters with the least possible delay, the name of a suitable person resident of their district who can act as agent for the Agricultural Department at Washington in the distribution of seeds and plants to be sent out from Washington for distribution among the people.

Our New Possessions.

Scientific men and distinguished explorers of the country seem to be infected with a common desire to become the head of whatever designs of a pioneer character the Government may have in contemplation for the territory of Russian America. Countless letters have already been received at the State Department from well known savans, offering their leadership in any expedition that may be formed. It is understood that no enterprise of this kind is deemed desirable by Secretary Seward before another summer, when, if possible, the aid and conduct of the distinguished naturalist and traveller, Professor Agassiz, will be sought.

The Impeachment Investigation.

The summons which has been served on Gen. Burton, commanding at Fortress Monroe, to appear before the Judiciary Committee is for the purpose of having him detail certain conversations which he is reported to have had with Jeff. Davis.

The Reconstruction Opinion.

Secretaries Stanton and Welles, Attorney General Stanbery, and Postmaster General Randall, had interviews with the Executive this evening, during which the opinion of Attorney General Stanbery on the reconstruction act was opened again for discussion.

The President to Visit Boston.

The President informed several Boston gentleman to-day that he did not think that there was any doubt but that he should visit their city in June. He should make a sea voyage, he said, and not proceed by rail.

Presidential Indorsement Valueless.

The completeness with which Congress has shorn the President of any interest or authority in certain local affairs of this District is best explained by the manner in which Executive indorsements of applicant papers are received now-a-days among those incumbents whose official creation has been transferred to Congress. A printer known to Mr. Johnson during the latter's career in Tennessee, to-day presented a letter to Mr. Defrees, public printer, in which his Excellency ventured the earnest hope that a place would be made in that Department for the bearer, a faithful typo and an old friend. The response to this presentation upon the part of Defrees was sharply indicative that he owed nothing to the President beyond a removal which Congress had counter changed, and that no endorsement from the White House could have any weight in influencing addition to or substraction from the list of employees engaged in the office of public printing.

Gen. Butler's Reserved Card.

Gen. Butler has indicated these several days past that he has yet in reserve his strongest card against Mr. Bingham's conduct of the conspiracy trial. It is supposed that this affirmation relates more particularly to certain notes and data derived from Mr. Jno. T. Ford, the proprietor of the theater wherein President Lincoln met his death, and who it will be remembered was imprisoned for six weeks in the Old Capitol with a score or more of persons arrested upon suspicion of complicity. The conversations and general communication had among these prisoners, together with the affrighted utterances of the Government witness, Weichman, then also under duress, are said to have made up important considerations, affecting the theory of guilt and innocence, all of which Mr. Ford had committed to a diary, and now submits to the keeping of Butler.

WASHINGTON, May 16, 1867.

IMPORTING PEAS.

The Treasury Department having been advised that large quantities of peas are imported from Canada, ostensibly for domestic use as dried peas, but used as seeds, the Collectors of Customs of all lake ports have been instructed to regard all whole peas as seeds, and charge on them the duty of thirty per cent. prescribed by statute, unless they have clear proof that they are kiln dried and unfit for seeding purposes.

MIDSHIPMEN.

Eighty-five midshipmen will be graduated at the ensuing examination of the Naval Academy. Fifty or sixty will be placed on the steamship Minnesota for a six months cruise for practical instruction.

ARRESTED FOR LARCENY.

James H. S. Schureman, colored messenger of the Comptroller of the Currency, was arrested and under examination to-day on a charge of the larceny of $12,000 in bills of the First National Bank of Jersey City, and forgery of signatures of officers of the bank. It is believed this is but a portion of the amount of National Bank notes abstracted. Schureman was confidential messenger of the Comptroller, and it was part of his duties to handle these notes and carry them to the express office. He is supposed to be only the tool of other parties who filled in the forged names.

FROM FORT BUFORD.

The following dispatch was received this afternoon at Grant's headquarters:

ST. LOUIS, May 16.—To Adjutant U. S. A.: We have a communication signed by Colonel Rankin, commanding officer of Fort Buford, as late as February 28. All were well then. He reports that on the first of January the Indians approached in considerable force before the fort, mounted, and after a variety of evolutions, doubtless meant to terrify, upon a single shot from a 12-pounder, went off in a hurry, and have not since that time attempted any further hostilities, although encamped on the Yellow Stone, only a few miles from the fort. Gen. Terry telegraphs that the recent report of the capture by Indians of the steamer Miner is false.

[Signed,] W. A. NICHOLS, A. A. General.

Nichols is Chief of Staff to Lieutenant General Sherman.

The receipts of Customs from the 1st to the 11th were $5,117,772.

INTERNAL REVENUE.

The receipts from Internal Revenue to-day were $295,751.

BANKRUPTCY RULES.

The Supreme Court met to-day, and after delivering various opinions, adjourned until the first Monday in December. The Court ordered as follows: That certain rules and forms of proceedings in bankruptcy, which have been framed and adopted by the Court in pursuance of an act of Congress approved March 2d, 1867, be and the same are hereby promulgated; that said rules and forms be recorded by the clerk, and that they be allowed to be printed.

MISSISSIPPI CASE DISMISSED.

Case No. 14, the original State of Mississippi complaint vs. Secretary Stanton and Generals Grant and Ord, was decided by the Court. The motion was for leave to file an amendment to the bill in this case. This was denied by a divided Court, as announced by Chief Justice Chase, but the names of the Judges on each side were not made public, this being a secret of the Court. Upon a motion to dismiss the bill for want of jurisdiction, it was ordered that the bill be dismissed with costs, so the Mississippi injunction case falls with that of Georgia.

SUPREME COURT DECISIONS.

In the case of the British steamship Sir Wm. Peel, captured near the mouth of the Rio Grande during the rebellion, the Court ordered restitution.

No. 12, original State of Texas vs. White et al., an injunction is allowed to restrain payment of certain Texas bonds to parties to whom it is alleged they were sold during the rebellion by parties in armed hostility to the United States, who had seized upon the archives of the Treasury and the property of the State. The Court grants leave to defendants to move to dissolve the injunction at the next term of Court.

He states that the public debt is $94,000; estimated revenue of the year $700,000; but the actual revenue will be $500,000 in excess.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

Almost a Riot---Troops Ordered Out---Shooting Affray at a Meeting in Galveston.

NEW ORLEANS, May 16.—Considerable disturbance took place among negro stevedores on the levee to-day, amounting almost to a riot. Two policemen were badly injured while endeavoring to rescue a negro from a mob composed of men of his own color. The military were ordered out to aid the police.

The following paragraph is from an order of General Mower, issued to-day: The United States Government, if necessary, will protect you through the military, but you will not be protected in wrong-doing.

Mr. McKenzie heard a noise in the kitchen, and going thither discovered two men there. Seizing a chair he knocked one of them down, but the other in turn attacked him, and dealt him a couple of heavy blows which for the time being so stunned him, that both of the rascals made their escape. On investigation it was discovered that before they were heard, they had been to his bedroom and taken two hundred and sixty dollars in money from his pantaloons' pocket. No clue to the robbers.

BENEFIT CONCERT.—A grand English Concert, for the benefit of the Soldiers' Monument Fund, will be given at Masonic Hall, on Thursday evening next, under the management of Mr. Clement Tetedoux. Zimmerman, W. B. Edwards, A. Chislett and other gentlemen. Every lover of music, and well wisher of the worthy object for which the concert is given, the erection of a monument to the memory of the gallant dead, should go to Masonic Hall next Thursday evening.

Fatal Railroad Accident--Coroner's Inquest--Verdict of the Jury.

Yesterday morning, about half-past ten o'clock, a terrible accident occurred in the yard of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, at the Pittsburgh end of the Railroad Bridge, resulting in the death of a man named John Connor, switch-tender in the yard. The deceased, it appears, was changing the switch for a train going towards the bridge, when he thoughtlessly stepped upon the other track. A train of freight cars, belonging to the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad Company, was backing into the yard from the opposite direction, and the end car struck Connor before he could get out of the way, knocking him down. Three cars passed over the prostrate man before the train could be stopped. When picked up he was found to be still living, although he was horribly mangled, his right thigh being crushed close to his body, and his left leg ground literally to fragments below the knee. He also received some very severe internal injuries of the chest and abdomen.

He was removed to his residence, in a court off Penn street, near O'Hara, in the Fifth ward, and Dr. Franklin Irish, Surgeon of the road, called to attend him. The physician found that all hopes of recovery were gone. The unfortunate man died in about one hour after the accident occurred. The deceased was about fifty years of age, and was an old and faithful employee of the road. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his loss.

Coroner Clawson empanneled a jury, and held an inquest on the body yesterday afternoon at Alderman Taylor's office. Several witnesses were examined, when the jury returned the following verdict: "That the said John Conner came to his death on the 16th day of May, 1867, by being run over by a truck train of the Cleveland and Pittsburgh Railroad, in the yard of the Pittsburgh, Fort Wayne and Chicago Railroad, and that in the opinion of this jury the accident would not have occurred had proper precautions been used. The jury would recommend for the safety of employees and others, at all times and on all occasions, that the companies have a man on the blind car when backing."

SOLDIERS' MONUMENT.

Meeting of the Association Yesterday--Further Arrangements for the Fair--Concert Tendered by Mr. Tetedoux--Site for the Monument, etc.

An important meeting of the Soldiers' Monumental Association was held in City Hall, yesterday afternoon. General James S. Negley was called to the Chair, and Miss Mattie Fowler officiated as Secretary.

After the reading of various communications, the following resolution was offered and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the Association hereby authorize the President to extend a cordial invitation of attendance at the formal opening of the Fair, to Hon. J. K. Moorhead, Hon. Thomas Williams, and the Mayors and Councils of the two cities, and also to the members of the Press.

A communication from the Grand Army of the Republic, expressing their sympathy with the object of the Association and tendering their support, was read and ordered to be placed on the records of the Association.

On motion, Generals Negley and Pearson and W. W. Ward, Esq., were added to the Committee on Invitations, and said committee instructed to arrange a programme for the opening evening of the Fair.

W. W. Ward, Esq., from the Committee on Concert, reported that Mr. Tetedoux and his pupils had signified their willingness to give a concert for the benefit of the Association, and submitted the following correspondence, which was received and filed, and a vote of thanks was given to Mr. Tetedoux and the parties named, for the kind tender of their valuable services.

CITY HALL, May 9th, 1867.

Mr. M. A. Woodward, Miss E. Addison, Miss M. McCandless, Miss M. Laughlin, Miss Porter and Messrs. Paul Zimmerman, W. B. Edwards, A. Chislett, etc.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN: We are induced by the success of your late concert, to request you to repeat it on Thursday, 23d instant, for the benefit of the Monumental Fair, in which all true sons and daughters of Pittsburgh must feel an active interest. We hope that you will be able to secure the assistance of Mr. Tetedoux.

Very respectfully yours, on behalf of the Association,
MRS. S. MCKEE, President.

PITTSBURGH, May 14th, 1867.

Miss S. McKee, President of Monumental Fair Association:

MADAM—Of our readiness to comply with your request, you could not doubt, and we are happy to say that Mr. Tetedoux did not hesitate in giving his assistance. He suggests that instead of repeating our entertainment of the 8th inst., we should prepare a concert exclusively English, as likely to be more popular. Short as is the time before us, we shall endeavor to justify the honor you do us, and make our contribution to the good cause in which you are engaged a substantial one.

Very truly yours,
A. CHISLETT,
For the Ladies and Gentlemen addressed.

On motion, Mrs. Dr. Cote was appointed to attend at City Hall, on the 24th inst., to receive moneys, return of tickets, and make final settlement of matters arising out of concerts.

The following communication was received from James Park, Jr., President of the Park Commissioners of Allegheny, which was ordered to be filed for future action:

Resolved, That the Committee on Common Ground be instructed to tender to the Soldiers' Monument Association the privilege of placing the Monument on any part of the Common Ground that the Association may select, provided the selection be made as the Park Commissioners may direct.

CITY OF ALLEGHENY, Monday, May 13, 1867.

SIR:—I do hereby certify that the foregoing is a true copy of the resolution passed by the Select and Common Councils at their meeting held on Thursday the 9th inst.

Yours, respectfully, D. MACPHERSON,
Clerk of the Select Council.

To James Park, Jr., Esq., President of Park Commissioners.

On motion the following rules of order were adopted for the guidance of all concerned during the Fair:

First. Let each booth or table appoint one of its members to be sole cashier and responsible for all moneys received at said table.

Second. Before the closing of the Fair on each night each cashier will hand to the chief treasurer all moneys on hand, with a written statement of amount and the name of cashier and table so returning it.

Third. The ticket collector will settle each night and hand over to the chief treasurer his entire receipts with statement.

Fourth. The chief treasurer will keep the assistant cashier and ticket collector supplied with all treasury change and money, and settle the same with them.

Fifth. By the above system the daily receipts of each table will be known, and the success of the Fair will be understood as it progresses.

W. F. Weyman, Esq., suggested that through some misunderstanding, City Hall had been rented to another party for three days and evenings during next week, leaving but three days in which to prepare the hall for the Fair, which would be entirely insufficient, and stated that Lafayette Hall could be procured for two days of next week, which this party would accept for their entertainment instead of City Hall, and suggested that this Association rent Lafayette Hall for them. On motion, Mr. Weyman's suggestion was adopted, and he instructed to complete the arrangement.

Mrs. Robinson reported the donation of two large paintings by Mr. Mazurie to the Art Gallery, and Mrs. Watt, the success of the Committee having charge of this department. Distinguished artists ... have the arrangement of paintings, &c., in the gallery and it is expected to make it one of the most attractive features of the Fair. Donations to this department are respectfully solicited.

On motion it was decided to present the magnificent Dressing Gown, prepared by the ladies, to the most popular soldier in Allegheny county—his popularity to be measured by the number of votes he gets during the Fair.

Ladies of the Association not already supplied, will procure concert tickets for sale from Mrs. Dr. Cote, Penn street.

Misses Jennie Watt and Sarah Wray were added to the Executive Committee and Miss Wray to Decorating Committee.

Mrs Brooks and Miss, Birdie Watt, and Captain George F. Alden, were added to the Committee on Relics and Curiosities.

Mr. Reese was appointed to make collections in the First ward, and General Rowley and Sergeant Gray, in the Sixth ward.

The Committee on Decorations, consisting of Misses Priscilla Verner, Amanda Knox, Jennie Watt, Sarah Wray, General Negley, General Pearson, Captain Elliott, Alex. Murdock, Esq., and Captain W. B. Cook, will meet at Mr. Verner's, No. 319 Penn street, on Monday evening at 7 o'clock. All the members are requested to be present.

On motion, the Association adjourned to meet at the same place on Tuesday next at 2½ o'clock, P. M.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before Mayor Morrison, of Allegheny.]

WIFE BEATING.

A man named David Lyle, residing on Jefferson street, in the Second Ward, Allegheny, was arrested on Wednesday night by officer Campbell, for beating and abusing his wife. Lyle was placed in the lock-up where he remained all night. His wife appeared at the Mayor's office yesterday morning, but declined to make information against him, and he was discharged by the Mayor upon the payment of a fine for disorderly conduct.

FIGHT IN A BEER HALL.

Three young men were arrested by the night watch on Wednesday, while raising a disturbance in a beer hall on Chestnut street. They were furnished the soft side of a board for their couch, for the night, and were let off yesterday morning by paying a fine.

[Before Alderman Humbert.]

VIOLATING THE BRIDGE ACT.

Wm. Baden, a butcher residing in Allegheny, was before this Alderman yesterday, charged with misdemeanor, in violating the act relating to bridges—the information being made by Hugh Boyle, collector at the Allegheny Suspension Bridge. The deponent alleged that Henry Schneidam, driver for Baden, trotted his horse and wagon over the bridge on Saturday last. At the hearing yesterday it was shown that Schneidam had just been fifteen days from Germany, could not speak nor understand English, and was not acquainted with the laws of the bridge. The accused was then discharged on payment of costs.

BREACH OF THE PEACE.

Bridget Swaney was charged with breach of the peace, on complaint of Anna Ward. The parties reside in Hamilton's Court, in the Second Ward, and Anna alleges that Bridget used the most violent and blasphemous language towards her, disturbing the peace of the neighborhood. Bridget was arrested and held for a hearing.

[Before Alderman Taylor.]

LARCENY OF A COPPER KETTLE.

Stephen Stackhouse was arrested yesterday on a charge of larceny preferred by Alfred Cronin. The deponent resides on Liberty street, and alleges that the defendant stole from him a copper kettle. Stackhouse had a hearing, which resulted in his committal to jail for trial.

ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Ellen Burns, of the Celtic persuasion, lodged complaint against one Richard Corax, of the colored race, for assault and battery. Corax is charged with having assaulted the prosecutrix at the Union Depot, and struck her in the face, thereby causing the blood to flow. A warrant for his arrest was issued.

ROBBERY IN THE NINTH WARD.

Joseph Timmons and August Hahneman, boarders at the boarding house No. 22 Carson street, Ninth ward, appeared before Alderman Taylor and made two informations against a fellow boarder, named Augustus Sanhager, charging him with larceny. They allege that the accused during the absence of deponents, entered their rooms and from Timmons stole $85 in greenbacks, consisting of three tens and eleven fives. He immediately absconded, and has not yet re-appeared. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

[Before Alderman Herron.]

CHARGED WITH LIBEL.

Henry Kaverman made an information before this magistrate on Wednesday, charging a German named Wm. Warner with libel. Recently Mr. Warner had occasion to write a letter to Germany, and, as Kaverman asserts, he used some expressions in the letter quite detrimental to the character of the last named gentleman. The accused was arrested, and in default of bail, committed to jail. Yesterday morning he procured bail and was released.

[Before Alderman Owston.]

SELLING GOODS WITHOUT LICENSE.

Daniel Kinzer appeared at the office of this Alderman yesterday, and made information, charging F. Kaufman, a leather dealer in New York city, with selling goods in this city without first obtaining the State license required by the act of Assembly. A partial hearing was had in the case, and a further hearing appointed for this afternoon.

COAL MERCHANT DROWNED.—Mr. Edward Conley, one of the lessees of the M. C. Coal Company's Works, near Monongahela City, was drowned in the Monongahela river on Monday last. It appears that he went on board a coal boat, moored in the river near the works, for the purpose of pumping it out, and had commenced working at the pump, when the spring pole either broke or became detached from the mortice, causing him to be precipitated into the river. At the place where he fell in, the water was about ten feet in depth, and he was drowned before assistance could reach him. His body was recovered in about three hours afterward. The deceased was about thirty years of age, and was known as a very respectable citizen. Esquire Clemens held an inquest and a verdict of accidental drowning was found in accordance with the above. At the time of the occurrence his wife was on a visit to her relatives on Mount Washington, in which vicinity deceased formerly resided. The body reached this city Tuesday evening, and was conveyed to the residence of Mr. Stevenson, on Mount Washington, from whence it was interred yesterday. Mr. Conley was reared in the family of Judge Boggs, in Lower St. Clair township.

Religious Intelligence.

Rev. W. W. Ralston, formerly of Churchville, Md., was installed pastor of the Tarentum Presbyterian Church, on Tuesday, May 7th, by a Committee of Redstone Presbytery. Rev. N. H. G. Fife, of Connellsville, preached the sermon; Rev. L. Y. Graham, of Rehoboth, gave the charge to the pastor; Rev. O. H. Miller, of West Newton, presided, put the Constitutional questions, and charged the people.

Last Sabbath ten persons were admitted to the Fourth Presbyterian Church of this city on profession of faith, and three on certificate.

At the Spring Sessions of the Presbytery of St. Clairsville, of the Presbyterian Church, Rev. Robert Tannehill was dismissed from the churches of Grandview and Brownsville, with a view to accept calls in his hands from the churches of Antrim and Birmingham.

At the recent meeting of the Chartiers Presbytery of the United Presbyterian Church, the resignations of Revs. Bain and Carson of their respective pastoral charges, laid on the table at the last meeting, were taken up, and after due consideration, were both accepted, and the pastoral relations between the Cannonsburg and South Buffalo congregations dissolved.

Mr. Samuel McBride, has been licensed to preach the gospel by the Chartiers U. P. Presbytery.

At the last communion at the First Presbyterian church of Mercer, sixty were added to the church.

At the meeting of Conemaugh U. P. Presbytery, held on the 7th inst., memorials to the General Assembly, on the subjects of communion and the new version of Psalms, were presented and adopted.

The U. P. Presbytery of Conemaugh will meet again at Blairsville, on the second Tuesday of June.

At the last meeting of the St. Clairsville Presbytery, Rev. Benjamin Mitchell, D. D., and Charles C. Norman, Esq., were elected Commissioners to the Presbyterian General Assembly.

The relations of pastor and people, between Rev. Samuel Henderson and the Presbyterian Congregation at Pigeon Creek, was dissolved by the Washington Presbytery, at its late session.

Messrs. William Smith and S. E. Brownlee, elected at the meeting of the Chartiers U. P. Presbytery, as delegates to the General Assembly, having represented their inability, as also that of their respective alternates, to attend, Mr. E. J. Agnew was elected in the room of Mr. Smith, and Mr. James McPeak in the room of Mr. Brownlee.

On Friday last the installation of Rev. J. S. Stuchell, as pastor of the Presbyterian Congregation of Monongahela City, took place in the First Church. The Committee appointed by Presbytery concluded the exercises. Rev. S. F. Scoville, of Pittsburgh, delivered a sermon on the relation of the pastor to his people, and charged the pastor. Rev. McKaig, of Raccoon, charged the congregation. The following Sabbath day was observed as a Communion occasion.

On Sunday morning last, at an ordinary congregational meeting of the Methodist Episcopal Church, at Monongahela City, about fifteen hundred dollars were subscribed—additional and independent of what was on any other subscription papers, for the use of the Building Committee. The work will be recommenced next week, and pushed steadily forward to completion.

The Devotion of the Forty Hours, in honor of the Most Holy Sacrament, will commence on May 19th, at Alphonsus' Catholic Church, Murrinsville; May 26th, at St. John's Church, Harman's Bottom; May 28th, at St. Andrew's Church, Manchester.

On Sunday, May 5th, the Rt. Rev. Bishop Domenec visited the St. Mary's Catholic church, Freeport. At the first Mass he administered the Holy Communion to several children. The Rt. Rev. Prelate, at the late Mass, conferred the Sacrament of Confirmation on forty persons, some of whom were converts. In the evening the same Prelate lectured for about an hour to a very large and attentive audience. On the 7th inst., the Right Rev. Bishop visited St. Francis' College, Loretto. Before Mass he baptized two of the pupils, who were converts to the faith; at the Mass he gave to them First Communion, with some other children of the Institution; and at the end of the Mass he administered to them the Sacrament of Confirmation.

The little Catholic congregation at Elizabeth, this county, has been steadily improving. A beautiful school house has been built, and the school, under a very competent teacher, is progressing finely. The pastor, Father Hayes, also introduced the Sodality of the Children of Mary.

On Thursday, 9th inst., Bishop Domenec visited St. Michael's Seminary, on the Monongahela river, for the purpose of conferring the Sacrament of Holy Order on some of the students. Early on Friday morning the Bishop celebrated Mass, assisted by Rev. P. Ward as Archdeacon, and Joseph Suhr as Master of Ceremonies. During Mass the holy order of Deaconship was conferred on Rev. M. P. Murphy and Rev. A. T. Brown, both of whom had been ordained Sub Deacons on Thursday. Messrs. T. McEnrue, H. Bramer, H. McHugh and J. Nolan received minor orders; Messrs. J. Byrnes, A. Lambing, B. Ferris, G. Grace, Edward Dignam, and J. Cosgrave, Tonsure. In the evening the Right Reverend Prelate assisted at May devotions. On Saturday, Reverend M. P. Murphy was raised to the dignity of the priesthood.

On Sunday last, four Protestants, two gentlemen and two ladies, were baptized and received into the Catholic congregation at Titusville. Forty-four Protestants have been admitted into this Church within the last two years.

BOLD HIGHWAY ROBBERY.—Mr. John Agnew, glass manufacturer, who resides in Baldwin township, while on his way home from the city a night or two since, was knocked down near East Birmingham, by three men, and robbed of his gold watch, valued at one hundred and fifty dollars, and a pocket-book containing a small amount of money. Mr. Agnew was quite severely injured, but was able to reach home.

The Daily Commercial

FRIDAY, MAY 17, 1867.

HAD the Grand Jury happened to come into Court, while J. DAVIS was present, would he not have stared with amazement, to see five darkies in the number—darkies, who, when he fled from Richmond, were mere chattels, now officially acting on the grand inquest of a United States Court?

THE public is likely to become tolerably familiar with Speaker COLFAX's lecture, "Across the Continent." Considering the number of times he has delivered it, and the number and extent of the reports that have been made of it, the lecturer will soon find it difficult to secure an audience to which it is at all new. Leaving out of the question the Presidential aspirations which Mr. COLFAX is credited with, this single production must in the end prove an excellent investment; but if we include the Presidential idea, we should say not so good; for through a good lecture of the hundred-dollar-a-night sort, it can scarcely be regarded as the most substantial ground for a claim to the first office in the Republic.

THE sale of the great ocean ram Dunderberg to the French Government, after a thorough examination by competent officers, sent out for that purpose, is a high indorsement of American skill and enterprise. Just now we do not want her—France does; and the purchase is a striking commentary on the Peace Conference which has just completed its labors by giving the world the assurance that there is going to be no war in Europe. It is an old proverb that actions speak louder than words—and the purchase by France of the most formidable war vessel in the world is an act that speaks with unmistakable significance. Mr. WEBB, the builder of the Dunderberg with the valuable aid of Mr. ERICSSON, should occasion require it, will be able to repeat his performance, with many improvements. Perhaps Prussia may conclude to give him the opportunity.

THE Tribune publishes the names of a number of Presidential tourists, either at present journeying or intending to journey, in different quarters of the country; but we fail to find in the list Mr. GREELEY's own name, which, if we are to believe Mr. WEED, should have a prominent place in the column. The public, no doubt, will appreciate the modesty to which the omission is owing; and it is equally probable that Mr. GREELEY will be duly grateful to Mr. WEED for supplying the omission. But the public will think what it chooses of Mr. WEED's averment that Mr. GREELEY's anxiety to become bondsman for JEFFERSON DAVIS had its origin in the Presidential aspirations of H. G. The suspicion that something curious was at the bottom of the proceeding is quite general, and may be a good many persons will conclude that T. W. is more than half right.

A SOUTHERN paper, in the following words, furnishes a text for a brief and plain array of historical notes:

> "We asked for bread and got a stone. We asked for fish and we received a serpent. We petitioned for the law and we got military imprisonments contrary to law; we got the civil rights acts; we got the military act."

They inaugurated a wanton and unjustifiable war, with insult to the national flag, stealing and destroying national property, threatening the national capital. At the cost of myriads of lives and millions of money, we frustrated their designs and restored the country to peace. They formed an odious and treacherous conspiracy to perpetuate and extend indefinitely the barbarous institution of human slavery. We overthrew that institution and proclaimed liberty to all the land, and to all the inhabitants thereof. They, in the prosecution of a war for barbarous ends, robbed and starved thousands of our prisoners who fell into their hands. We, at the very moment when this political libeler is making false and perverted use of the Scriptural allusion, are feeding thousands and scores of thousands of the wretched people reduced to starvation by their war.

THE sale of the ram Dunderberg to France, the appearance in our iron-clad market of agents of the Sultan, the presence of Japanese agents to look after old and make new purchases of war vessels, the announcement that the California, Oregon and Mexican Steamship Company is about to dispatch a steamer to New Archangel and Sitka, and several other similar items of news in the papers the present week, are well calculated to awaken an agreeable train of reflection in the universal Yankee mind. Though we make but a sorry show at the Paris Exposition, the Emperor knows very well that we have something better than he can make himself or buy elsewhere, and he don't hesitate to come here to buy it. With the Dunderberg, armed with our Fifteen and Twenty-inch guns, in French waters, JONATHAN would probably be content to permit other countries to brag over their notions on exhibition at the show—especially as he could display a long list of other things at home cast in the same intellectual mold.

EVERYTHING LOVELY, AT LAST.

It is so long since anything of a hilarious, hopeful or even good-natured tone has been sounded in the columns of the Richmond press, that we hail the novelty with a sort of satisfaction. The joy of the Enquirer on the arrival in Richmond of "Ex-President DAVIS," as it terms him, is expressed in glowing and affecting terms. The streets of the city were crowded with people anxious "to manifest their respect and sympathy for their beloved chieftain," "the multitude uncovered in token of his presence," "ladies were affected to tears at the sad spectacle of their beloved ex-chieftain borne through the streets of Richmond to be tried like a felon," "he had the best rooms in the hotel assigned to him;" and as to Mr. DAVIS himself, "his countenance still preserves the proud expression and the mingled look of sweetness and dignity," "his eye still beams with all the fire, &c.," and "he seems every inch a King." These are a few of the excited and delighted utterances of the Enquirer, giving better than our loyal pen could do it the Richmond and rebel view of the occasion.

But the joy at his arrival rises, next day, to an ecstacy, when Mr. DAVIS is brought into court and released from custody. "The sun looked down with peculiar brightness, and nature wore its most approving smiles." "GREELEY and BOTTS exchanging cordial greetings with JEFFERSON DAVIS." "The people making the welkin ring with wild and uncontrollable outbursts of joy," "brave soldiers, all unused to the melting mood, weeping." In fact, it was, we should judge, almost up to the celebrated melodramatic scene, in the Philadelphia convention. Even Judge UNDERWOOD, whose name has borne a terrible odor in the stern phillipics and less dignified vituperation of the Enquirer hitherto, is now complimented with a panegyric for his present offices and a pardon for his past offenses. Old SHYLOCK's rapturous exclamation, "A DANIEL come to judgment, yea, a DANIEL," would scarcely overdo the Enquirer's ecstacy.

It would be absurdly unphilosophical to attribute all this delight to mere personal esteem for Mr. DAVIS. Indeed, the bearing of the important transaction on the political condition of the country, and on the relations of the "lost cause" to the loyalty of the nation, is evidently recognized by those who greet the event with so much satisfaction. In the very article to which we have referred, it is expressly declared that the act of Congress, under which reconstruction is going on, and all the other acts of Congress on the same subject, were "all in repudiation of our lawful privileges and constitutional rights." And it is added, "We had yesterday the morning streak of a brighter day! and the North had a lesson which, if it will ponder, will promote the common good." In this view of the case, it is easy to account for the "thrill of joy that every citizen of the Southern States feels" on the release of their chieftain, their ex-President, their every inch King. Quite another feeling will possess the minds of those who have spent years of toil and suffering, in saving their country from the parricidal plots and bloody campaigns of this arch-traitor.

THE practice which has grown up within a very few years in the Executive Department of New York, of retaining bills weeks, and even months, before the Governor's signature is attached, has given rise to a great deal of scandal. Mr. WEED, in the New York Commercial, charges unequivocally, that "members of Governor FENTON's kitchen cabinet" make a regular business of selling his signature after the Legislature has adjourned; and an Albany paper states that in one instance ten thousand dollars was paid for it; but it says it will not insist that Governor FENTON shared in the transaction.

The practice, here referred to, which is not confined to New York, is manifestly open to exception, and in the State named the ensuing Constitutional Convention will be invoked to apply a corrective. With a corrupt man occupying the Executive Chair, the Executive signature might very readily become an article of merchandise; and considering the tendency of the times it is not at all surprising that the scandal to which we have referred should have arisen. Although money is paid, the inference does not necessarily follow that the Executive gets it. He may have already determined in his own mind, or may, independent of outsiders, determine to give his signature to a certain bill, as a matter of duty, and lobbyists may still reap the reward of their pretended influence and brokerage. In New York the abuse is deemed worthy of Constitutional correction, and it is probable that elsewhere, where the same practice exists, a similar, or some other corrective may be deemed altogether proper.

Louisville and Portland Canal.

An official investigation into the Louisville and Portland canal has developed some important facts, going to show that the work belongs to the United States and to no company. The investigation is by W. D. Gallagher, late depositor of public moneys in Louisville, by the direction of the Secretary of the Treasury. The Washington correspondent of the Cincinnati Gazette, who makes the statement, says further:

> The investigation, so far as it has been carried to this date, develops the expenditure (since the year 1842, at which time the improvement was reported to have been "completed, at a cost of one million of dollars") of immense sums of money, collected from commerce of the West in the form of tolls on steamboats and other water crafts passing through the canal, and also the creation of a debt of $1,600,000, for which the United States is liable. It shows further, in the relation of the United States to the canal property, and in the attitude of the Board of Directors toward the Secretary of the Treasury, an unusual and most anomalous condition of things, which ought to be ended in one way or another, at the earliest period possible. But there is no imputation in any quarter upon the honor or integrity of the gentlemen who now constitute, or who have heretofore constituted, the local Board of Managers.

A report will be made to Congress when it meets, and will embrace a thorough overhauling of the works of the company for forty years. It is not unlikely that in the facts as they will appear, Congress will make provisions to take possession of the work, completing it on a scale which will be adequate to all the necessities of the commerce and navigation of the Ohio river, lodging its supervision and management in the Treasury Department, and distinctly declaring that after it shall have been finished no other or more tolls shall be collected from the vessel using it than may be necessary for its economical management and to keep it in good repair.

Senator Wilson at the South.

A Boston merchant who is traveling in the South, and has been about three days behind Senator Wilson, writes home as follows: "If one can judge anything from what is said, the Senator is doing a good work all through this part of the country. Up to last Sunday he had made eighteen speeches—most of them in the open air—the audiences being too large for any building. As a whole they were about one-fifth white. So far Mr. Wilson has not been greeted with a single insulting word. His talk has put the people to thinking and discussing, and two parties have sprung up, which never existed here before. So far as I can learn from what is said, the Senator speaks very plainly and straightforward, yet conciliatory, and with proper tact and management. I cannot see anything to prevent the Republicans from carrying most, if not all the southern States. The people here (Charleston) are being reconstructed very fast, not from choice but because they fear something worse. The aristocracy are fast losing their hold upon the people. On the first of May the street cars were thrown open to the public without regard to color. You would be amused to see some of the ladies leave the cars when a negro entered; and the ladies go fanning and puffing along the street while the negroes occupy the cars. I presume they think they are punishing somebody, but I cannot see who it is, unless it is themselves. If the white people here do not look sharp, the negroes will not only occupy the cars but will soon occupy their houses and plantations. General I——, told me, at Raleigh, that there were 153 free colored schools in North Carolina, and only three free white schools. You can judge what an effect that will have upon the population in ten years."

The suspension bridge project from New York to Brooklyn may be considered as a fixed fact. The corporators have had their first formal meeting, to perfect their organization under the act of the Legislature. Mayors Hoffman and Booth are on the committee on organization. Another meeting will be held on Thursday, when it is probable the necessary preliminaries for the survey will be agreed on, with some plan of raising the necessary funds. It is a great enterprise and the popular feeling seems to be in favor of pushing it now as rapidly as possible.

TRADE WITH RUSSIAN AMERICA.—The San Francisco papers, in noticing the promptness with which steam communication has been established between that city and the new American territory on the Russian coast, states that New Archangel is the center of a fur trade that employs some fifty vessels, and gives the Russians a profit of $500,000 annually, whilst with Victoria a trade of $50,000 yearly profit is had by the inhabitants of New Archangel. The harbor of that city is a fine one, and the San Francisco Bulletin thinks the Government will probably establish a naval station there.

A San Francisco letter says: The confirmation of the Russian American treaty is received with extreme satisfaction by all who know the real value of the territory ceded, and they comprise every intelligent inhabitant of the Pacific coast. You can hardly conceive of the importance of this northern purchase to us. We know the value of the fisheries, the furs, the probable mineral development, and could not understand the hesitation of Congress to ratify the treaty.

The latest failure of the Great Eastern will fall on some French speculators who chartered her. The expense of fitting up the vessel with special reference to this speculation, was four hundred thousand dollars. It is understood that the owners of this very flattering speculation are about one hundred in number. Two million of francs was the capital—five hundred francs per share. This company will doubtless collapse.

COAL, it is reported, has been found in Middlesex county, New Jersey. Considerable beds of coal of the brown or lignite variety have been discovered in that county, between South Amboy and Keyport. It is estimated that there are 4,000 tons per acre above the water level, and that it can be landed in New York at a cost of not over $2 a ton. New York speculators are already reported as having control of these newly-found coal lands.

CONSUMPTION CURABLE.

Its icy hand falls alike upon youthful innocence and hoary-headed age. Some of the prominent symptoms are Cough, Expectorant, Shortness of Breath, Irritation about the Lungs and Chest, darting Pains in the Side and Back, Emaciation, and a general negative condition of the whole system.

The Rev. EDWARD A. WILSON'S Prepared Prescription for the cure of CONSUMPTION, ASTHMA, BRONCHITIS, COUGHS, COLDS, and all THROAT and LUNG AFFECTIONS, has now been in use over ten years with the most marked success.

The Remedy, prepared under Mr. Wilson's personal supervision, also a pamphlet containing the original Prescription, with full and explicit directions for preparation and use, together with a short history of his case, may be obtained of the following reliable Druggist,

JOSEPH FLEMING,
cor. Market street and the Diamond, Pittsburgh.

The Proposed Soldiers' Monument.

To the Editor of the Pittsburgh Commercial:

I hope I shall not be considered obtrusive, while I make a suggestion in regard to the soldiers' monument. Before I advert to the subject, I would have it distinctly understood that I favor some proper means of commemorating the death of our fallen braves; those patriotic men who endured the hardships of numerous campaigns, who wielded a strong arm in defense of their country, and who sacrificed their lives that this great Republic might live. But how shall we properly commemorate their patriotism? Pericles, in his oration over those Athenians who had first fallen in the Peloponnesian war, declared it to be a debt of justice to pay superior honors to men who had devoted their lives in fighting for their country; but those honors were more devoted to their wives and children than the soldiers themselves.

Now, it is my suggestion to purchase suitable grounds, in the neighborhood of the city, and erect substantial buildings upon the same, furnish them, improve the grounds, and thus organize a Soldier's Orphan Asylum, such a one as will be adequate to the wants of Allegheny county. Then gather in the destitute children of the men who lost their lives in their country's service; give them a good education, and proper moral and religious training, and fit them for the higher duties of life. This can be done within a space of twenty years, and then, at the expiration of that period, convert it into a home for aged and impotent soldiers, many of whom will by that time be so crumpled with age that they will be reduced in mind to the imbecility of a second childhood, and consequently unable to care for themselves, and thus it could serve a good purpose for perhaps half a century more.

And to the friends of the monument I would appeal, what marble or stone mausoleum could do any good compared to an asylum on the above plan? True, it would commemorate their bravery and their sacrifice, but of what service other than that would it be. I would ask the committee having charge of the matter to consider the suggestion I have laid before you.

G. W. M.

Four prisoners arrived Friday at the Ohio Penitentiary from Lake County, and one from Defiance. The prisoner from Defiance is named Junetta Dixon, and is sentenced for two years, for grand larceny. The firm of Barber & Hawley, perhaps the largest manufacturers of agricultural implements in Illinois, have failed. Attachments to the amount of $75,000 or more were levied on the assets of the firm at Decatur, on Friday. The night before their branch shop at Pekin took fire, and was burned to the ground. It is said the failure will be a very bad one.

FILES! FILES!
THE AUBURN FILE WORKS
AUBURN, NEW YORK.

Would call the attention of manufacturers and those using Files and Rasps to the superior article of HAND CUT FILES, which they are now making from the best quality of Cast Steel, consisting of Flat, Hand, Mill, Saw, Round, Half Round, Square, Taper Saw Files, Horse Rasps, and all other kinds, which are in no respect inferior to any now made.

It accords neither with our taste or our principle to assert that our Files have never been approached by any other manufacturer. The Files must speak for themselves, and those who wish to purchase largely are sufficiently wise to accept the evidence of the files rather than the assertion of the manufacturers.

Your orders may be left with T. H. RICHARDS, Esq., 30 Fifth street, Pittsburgh, where samples of some of the principal kinds may be examined and prices obtained. Your orders will be carefully executed at the manufactory, and warranted to give satisfaction or Files returned.

We have permission to refer to the Pittsburgh Novelty Works, who are now using our work to their entire satisfaction. Under date of November 28, 1867, they say:

"The files give general satisfaction in regard to "temper and cut. The only objection we find is, "they are cut too fine for our use. A coarser cut "would suit us better. Please remember this when "we send another order."

Also of May 6th, 1867, enclosing draft for $183 73.

"Your Files give satisfaction, and you have per-"mission to use our name in regard to their "quality."

Please call and examine samples before placing your orders.

UP IN THE BARN.

Old Farmer Joe steps through the doors
As wide to him as the gates of Thebes;
And thoughtful walks about the floors
Whereon are piled his winter stores,
And counts the profits of his glebes.

Ten tons of timothy up there,
And four of clover in the bay;
Red-top that's cut, well middlin' fair,
And bins of roots, oblong and square,
To help eke out the crops of hay.

A dozen head of cattle stand
Reflective in the leaf-strewn yard,
And stalks are stacked on every hand,
The latest offering of the land
To labor long maintained and hard.

Cart-loads of pumpkins yonder lie—
The horse is feeding in his stall,
The oats are bundled scaffold high
And peas and beans are heaped hard by,
As if there were some festival.

At length Old Farmer Joe sits down—
A patch across each of his knees;
He crowds his hat back on his crown,
Then clasps his hands—so hard and brown—
And, like a farmer, takes his ease.

"How fast the years do go!" says he;
"It seems, in fact, but yesterday,
That in this very barn we three—
David, Ezekiel, and me—
Pitched in the summer loads of hay!

David—he sails his clipper now;
'Zekiel died in Mexico—
Some one must stay and ride to plow,
Get up the horse and milk the cow—
And who, of course? but little Joe.

I might have been—I can't tell what:
Who knows about it till he tries?
I might ha' settled in some spot
Where money is more easy got;
Perhaps beneath Pacific's skies.

I might have preached, like Parson Jones;
Or got a living at the law;
I might have gone to Congress, sure;
I might have kept a Water Cure;
I might have gone and been—oh pshaw!

Far better is it as 'tis;
What future waits him no man knows;
What he has got, that sure is his;
It makes no odds if stocks have riz,
Or politicians come to blows!

Content is rich, and somethin' more—
I think I have heard somebody say;
If it rains, it's apt to pour;
And I am rich on the barn floor,
Where all is mine that I can raise.

I've plowed and mowed this dear old farm,
'Till not a rod but what I know,
I've kept the old folks snug and warm—
And lived without a twinge of harm—
I don't care how the storm might blow.

And on this same old farm I'll stay,
And raise my cattle and my corn;
Here shall these hairs turn wholly gray;
These feet shall never learn to stray;
But I will die where I was born!"

And Farmer Joe pulled down his hat,
And stood up on his feet once more;
He would not argue after that,
But like a born aristocrat,
Kept on his walk about the floor.

—Thomas Lackland.

PERSONAL.

—Old Trinity, New York, gives Bishops to lmost all the weaker dioceses of the Episcopal hurch here of late. It was but the other day at she supplied Maine with a successor to the amented Burgess, and now we learn to-day at another of her assistant ministers, Rev. J. reeman Young, D. D., has been elected Bishop f the Diocese of Florida. Mr. Young has een connected with the parish for several ears. He is young in years as well as in name; ut he has the reputation, nevertheless, of be- g an efficient and faithful minister. It is not scertained as yet whether he will accept. 'lorida is not a very tempting field at present ut Mr. Young may not be a man who will ant to be tempted.

A certain dark night we chanced upon a per- on in the stern of the vessel, leaning over, watching the phosphorescent bubbles in our ocean track. The man was communicative; his conversation fascinating and refined; his famil- arity with the poets, and readiness in quoting was pleasing and astonishing. His dress was ough, and he was connected with the ship as steward. The counterpart of histories often told was his; loss of money, poor man- agement, the fate of genius, and ill success. This man was no less than Richard Lewis, a poet, whose volume, published when he was quite a youth, met the smiles of the growing reviews and the favor of the public. This Englishman, but twenty-four years old, will yet be heard from.

CITY MATTERS.

STRUCK WITH A STONE.—A gentleman named Wm Woods, while passing up Webster street yesterday, was struck on the head with a stone, thrown by a boy, and badly hurt.

THE VIRGIN ALLEY SEWER.—That section of the Virgin Alley sewer crossing Liberty street, is nearly completed, and the obstruction on that thoroughfare will soon be removed.

THE ELIZABETH ELECTION.—We were in error in stating that the entire Democratic ticket was elected in Elizabeth borough, as three of the Council and two School Directors elected are Republicans.

"AFTER THE WAR."—Rev. John B. Clark, D. D., of Allegheny City, will deliver a lecture in the Court House at Washington, Pa., on Monday evening next, on the subject "After the War." The proceeds of the lecture will be applied to the benefit of the United Presbyterian Church at Washington.

ACCIDENT.—A teamster was engaged unloading flour in front of Wilson & Co.'s warehouse, on Smithfield street, yesterday, when a barrel rolled upon him, knocking him down and injuring him quite severely. He remained insensible for some moments, and was taken into the warehouse, where he finally recovered.

ERRATUM.—In announcing the departure of the Rev. Dr. Wilson, yesterday, for New York, as a delegate to a religious body which will convene in that city next week, we declared him to be the pastor of the Third Presbyterian Church. This was an error. Rev. Dr. Wilson is pastor of the Sixth Presbyterian Church.

PITTSBURGH DIVISION S. OF T., NO. 42.—This strong, efficient and well organized temperance division is doing great good in this community. On Monday evening next their new and beautiful Lodge Rooms will be the scene of a grand re-union. Cards of invitation have been issued, and the affair promises to be one full of interest and encouragement to the friends of the Temperance Reform.

SEVERE ACCIDENT.—Thomas Lee, of Allegheny, a driver of one of the Pearl Mill wagons, met with a severe accident on Thursday afternoon. He had some flour in his wagon, and stopped at the store of C. Holmes & Co., on the corner of Smithfield and Third streets, to adjust his load. He was lifting a barrel of flour out of the wagon, when he lost his balance and fell out, the barrel partially falling on him and striking his left side. He was taken into the store, and Dr. Biddle Arthurs called in. It was found that no bones were broken, and although his injuries were painful, they were not of a serious nature.

WASHINGTON COUNTY COURTS.—The May term of the Washington County Criminal Court will commence on Monday next, and it is expected will continue about two weeks. John Lennox, who is now in our county jail, having been transferred under a special act of the Legislature, will probably be tried on the charge of murder. Bird and Whittaker, the alleged Sproul murderers, will also be tried. There are also on the calender a number of other offenses of a high grade, for trial. A special court is to be [illegible] first Monday of June, [illegible] Common Pleas, in which [illegible] counsel before going [illegible]

[illegible] FIRST MESSAGE.—The [illegible] Police and Fire Alarm Telegraph went over the wires on Wednesday afternoon. Capt. John H. Hare, Chief Engineer of the Fire Department, while passing along Penn street, discovered a drunken man acting very disorderly, and going to Box No. 6, corner of Penn street and Cecil alley, struck the number "22," which means "Send police here." The message was received at the Central Station, the police immediately notified, and a policeman was on the ground and had the drunken man in custody within four minutes from the time the message was sent.

SERIOUS ACCIDENT—KICKED BY A HORSE.—An old gentleman named Mr. Carson, residing in Sewickley, met with an injury on Wednesday evening, which may prove fatal. Mr. Carson, it appears, was driving a horse along Green street, in Sewickley, when the animal became unmanageable, and kicked him on the head, crushing in his skull on the left side. The injured man was picked up and conveyed to his home in the borough, where Drs. John Dickson, McCready and Miller attended him. The physicians performed the operation of trepanning, and removed the fractured bones. Mr. Carson is now lying in a critical condition.

PROMISCUOUS SHOOTING.—A German, who declined to give his name, was arrested in Allegheny, on Wednesday night, for promiscuous shooting. It appears that the German, while laboring under the influence of liquor, got a gun, went around the streets and commenced shooting at everything and anything. A man passing by, determined to stop his dangerous amusement, and knocked him down into the gutter, where he was found by officer Bolster. Upon being taken to the Mayor's office, it was found that his face had been terribly cut and bruised, caused probably by his striking the curbstone when he fell. Dr. W. W. Marcus was called in and dressed his injuries, after which he was removed to his residence in the Third ward, Allegheny.

TO THE FRIENDS OF THE BLIND.—The Principal, officers and thirty pupils of the Pennsylvania Institution for the instruction of the blind, will visit Pittsburgh and remain during the week, commencing on Monday, May 20th. They will give several musical exhibitions, and also the method of reading the raised letters, and other interesting exercises. The object of the visit is to exhibit the capacity of the blind to receive instruction in every branch of knowledge, and to acquire mechanical trades for their self-support. As many of the Western counties have never sent their blind children to the institution at Philadelphia, their friends are notified that the State provides for those who are indigent. Application may be made to William Chapin, Principal, Philadelphia.

REWARD OFFERED.—Our readers will remember that a few days ago a man named P. Riley, under sentence to the Penitentiary for a term of eight years, while being brought down the Allegheny river on the steamboat Ida Rees, jumped off into the river near Tarentum, although heavily ironed, and either was drowned or made good his escape. Sheriff Gray, of Venango county, in his public notice, says: "I will pay $300 reward for the arrest and delivery of the said Riley at Franklin or the Western Penitentiary, at any time between now and the first of January, 1868. Or I will pay $250 for information that will secure his arrest. In case any officer or citizen, in attempting to arrest said Riley, should kill him to save themselves, the full reward will be paid them, and if he is drowned I will pay $100 for the recovery or identity of the body. If taken he will be a hard man to keep."

The Prize Ring in Pittsburgh—"Mill" on Irwin Street.

A number of Gipsies, who have their camping grounds at Roup's Station, near East Liberty, came into the city on Wednesday and went to the horse market on Irwin street for the purpose of trading in horses. While there, about three o'clock in the afternoon, one of them named Wm. Broadway, happened to meet another Gipsey named Leonard Wells, belonging to another tribe, between whom a fued has been existing for about three years past. Upon meeting the quarrel was renewed, and they determined to settle the matter by a regular prize fight. A ring was formed in the market yard, the principles stripped to the waist, and a "bottle-holder" selected. Wells chose Samuel Cooper for his second, and Broadway selected for his second his father, John Broadway. The battle then commenced, and five or six rounds were fought, when the police, who had been apprised of the fight, made a descent upon them. Wells and young Broadway were taken in custody by officers Cupples and Strain. Young Broadway made a desperate attempt to break away from the police, but with the assistance of officer Moon, he was conveyed safely to the lock-up. Cooper and the elder Broadway, together with three other Gipsies, who gave their names as England Young, Sampson Boswell, and James Guy, and who were witnesses to the disgraceful affair, were also taken into custody by the special police, and conveyed to the tombs. The "mill" lasted for fifteen or twenty minutes, and is said to have been well contested. Both the principals were pretty badly beaten. The parties were all brought before Mayor McCarthy, who, after hearing the testimony of the police, discharged Boswell, Young and Guy, and inflicted a fine on Wells, Cooper, and the two Broadways, of $25 and costs, each. They paid the fine and costs, which amounted in all to one hundred and nine dollars and sixty cents, and were discharged.

COURT OF COMMON PLEAS.—Before Judge Stowe.

P. Y. Hite vs. Western Pennsylvania Railroad Company. The jury in this case, which has been on trial since Monday, rendered a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $575. The Railroad Company appropriated two acres of land in East Deer township belonging to the plaintiff, and failing to agree as to the amount of compensation, viewers were appointed, who assessed the damages at $1,300. The plaintiff, not being satisfied with the award, appealed, claiming that he had been damaged to the amount of $10,000. The jury, however, placed a much lower estimate on the value of the land than either the plaintiff or the viewers.

W. P. Davis and Jane E. Davis his wife vs. M. A. Arnholt, M. D. Action for damages sustained by alleged malpractice. The defendant is a practicing physician and surgeon in Birmingham, and was called to attend Mrs. [illegible] alleged, prolonged [illegible] unskillful treatment [illegible] in the sum of [illegible]

Pittsburgh Farmers and Mechanics Turnpike Road Co. vs. The Oakland Passenger Railway Company. Action to recover $200 for work done on the turnpike, under an alleged agreement between the parties. On trial.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge McCandless.

Yesterday morning, in the United States District Court, Robert Black, charged with having in his possession, and attempting to pass counterfeit currency, and whose bail was forfeited, came into Court, when his recognizance was respited, and the trial postponed till next term.

UNITED STATES CIRCUIT COURT.—The District Court having been finished up, the Circuit Court was declared in session, and the first case taken up was that of Wm. J. Florence vs. J. O. Sefton and J. R. Gardiner, late managers of the Opera House. Action on an infringement of a copyright. The defendants played an Irish piece which belonged to the plaintiff. The jury found a verdict for plaintiff in the sum of $500, the penalty prescribed by law.

Public Amusements.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—A large and fashionable audience witnessed Mr. Murdoch's admirable impersonation of "Charles Surface" last evening at the Academy, and satisfaction was visible on every countenance. Mr. Murdoch's "Charles" was, of course, elegant and artistic, and was equal if not really superior to any former personation of that character in this city by that talented actor. Mr. Leak performed the character of that "man of sentiment," "Joseph Surface," in a very creditable manner, and all the characters were in capable hands and well performed. To-night, Mr. Murdoch will give his famous impersonation of "Rover," in "Wild Oats," in which he is without a peer. A matinee will be given at the Academy on Saturday afternoon, at two o'clock.

OPERA HOUSE.—"Standing Room Only" was posted in front of the building last evening before the curtain arose, which sufficiently indicates the undiminished popularity of the beautiful spectacle, the "Black Crook." It is only necessary to say it will be repeated this evening.

THEATRE.—This evening the popular Ethiopian comedian, Charley White, will take a benefit, upon which occasion a new and attractive programme will be presented. Among the new features are the "Rose of Castile Ballet," "The Rival Darkies," "Matrimonial Sweets," and the "Challenge Dance." The attraction is great, and should crowd the house.

VARIETIES.—Manager Myers is a liberal caterer to the amusement loving public, which is evident from the programme announced for this evening. A new local farce "Luck in a Name" is very amusing, while the burlesque acts, dancing and singing are admirable. The laughable burlesque, the "Black Cook," with Johnny Hart as "Stale-act-er," is a successful card. To-night the Demon Dance is announced for half-past ten o'clock.

The Sculling Match.

An extract from an Eastern sporting paper, was published on Wednesday, purporting to be a statement made to the editor by John Shea, Walter Brown's late trainer, in which Brown was charged with having offered to sell the race for $700. Mr. Brown, upon perusing the item, visited the office of Alderman Strain and made the following affidavit:

"Before me, John A. Strain, one of the Aldermen in and for said city, personally came Walter Brown, who upon oath duly administered according to law, doth depose and say that the statement set forth in the article hereunto annexed, is false and untrue in every particular."

Mr. Fred. Dierst, who is at present acting in the capacity of trainer to Mr. Brown, publishes a card, in which he asserts that Shea was discharged for incompetency, and that the statements made by him were dictated by motives of revenge.

The McKee Boat Club, of Birmingham, brought their boat house, which is used by Walter Brown, down from Glenwood, yesterday, and moored it on the south side of the Monongahela river, opposite the city.

IT HAS NEVER FAILED!—STILL ANOTHER GREAT CURE AT HOME—READ! READ!! READ!!! Mr. James Fielding, residing at No. 7 Ohio street, Allegheny city, writes the following voluntary indorsement of Dr. Holmes's celebrated Magic Plaster. He says: "I was finally induced by a very intimate friend to try Dr. Holmes's celebrated Magic Plaster. Up to this period my sufferings from acute pains in the breast had grown from bad to worse, and were almost unbearable. My agony at times was so intense that I felt it would be impossible much longer to hold on to life. No human tongue can express the misery I endured. And I felt hopeless—perfectly hopeless. Every remedy I tried failed from the outset. I told my friend I thought it useless to try any more expedients, and that I must die. But he urged me so hard to try Holmes's Magic Plaster, that I finally agreed to do so. I procured it and applied it according to the printed directions. It was not long before I felt that it was grapling with my physical enemy. Subsequently I began to feel stronger, and my improvement was manifest to all my friends. The pains in my breast which had tortured me for five long years, seemed to disappear as if by magic. I procured another fresh plaster, and have not required any more. I am well again—strong, hale and active, and all symptoms of my disease are gone. I believe I have been cured by the plaster, for I took nothing while using it, in the way of medicines, and I recommend it to the public as being eminently what it is represented—a sure cure for pains in the breast, back, side, etc. For sale by all respectable druggists. A Remarkable Case of Physical and Nervous Prostration.

INDIAN HERB DOCTOR—Dear Sir:—I cannot refrain from making a voluntary offering of my gratitude to you for your scientific instrumentality in restoring my wife to health and spirits, after the medical faculty of Pittsburgh gave her up to die. My wife was a mere skeleton, at best like to an effigy of bones strung on wires, as found in the museums and anatomical theaters of the medical schools. Your treatment brought her clean out of the grave. She is now perfectly well. Every time I called at your office it was thronged with patients; not from the lowly and ignorant, but from the most wealthy, influential and respectable classes, all of whom you received with dignity and courtesy, and diagnosed their disorders without asking them the slightest question, with such wonderful accuracy that many of your patients were constrained to exclaim that you had read their characters and complaints most thoroughly and satisfactorily, not only to themselves, but accompanying friends. Doubtless the day is at hand when the whole science of medicine will be written on a single page, when mankind will understand that the great secret of life consists in maintaing the acquilibrium of the nervous or electrical forces of the organism.

Yours, truly, JAMES BOYCE,

All the World Over!

There are but few spots on our globe where HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS are not known; and, when known, appreciated.

In the UNITED STATES and BRITISH AMERICA it has become a household word. As a protective against malaria, epidemic fevers, Fever and Ague, and other diseases, produced by miasmatic influences, it stands far ahead of all other preparations, and is so considered by the most eminent physicians of the day.

In SOUTH and CENTRAL AMERICA, MEXICO and WEST INDIES it has obtained a firm hold on the minds of the people, and is implicitly relied upon as a certain preventive and cure for the many malarious diseases incident to those tropical regions.

In AUSTRALIA, TASMANIA, NEW ZEALAND, and adjacent Islands, its progress has been marvelous. Merchants, Miners, Farmers, Manufacturers and Squatters, all endorse it. Thousands already has it saved from the pernicious effects of miasma arising from the low swampy grounds so prevalent in those countries.

In CHINA and the EAST INDIES it is working its way with rapid strides, and is extensively used in the hospitals.

In Conservative EUROPE, even, its influence is being felt; and the day is not far distant when HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS will become in the old world what it now is in the new—a never-failing joy to the afflicted.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY EVENING, May 16th, 1867.

The local money market continues quite active, and the demand upon the banks from customers is generally pretty liberally met.

The failure of the First National Bank of New Orleans is of considerable interest to many business men here. One of its directors is a gentleman well known and intimately connected in this city. The bank had a capital of $500,000 with the privilege of $1,000,000. It was established before the close of the war, and it is said carried a much heavier line of deposits and was doing a much larger business in the Foreign Exchanges than this moderate capital or the experience or ability with which the concern was managed ought, perhaps, to have justified. We learn from a New York dispatch that on inquiring this morning it was ascertained that the reported deficiency, on account of the Assistant Treasurer, is about $1,000,000. He and the other parties implicated have unconditionally turned over all their private property to the Government. It is not anticipated that the United States will be a loser to any considerable extent. The Government deposits in New Orleans National Banks are less in amount than the securities held by the United States, and the Government, therefore will not loser from these institutions. The parties implicated in the difficulties have heretofore borne the highest character for honesty and financial ability. It is supposed they involved themselves in cotton operations, and their losses resulted from a decline in the price of that article. When the Secretary of the Treasury received information of the difficulty he, last Friday week, dispatched a Commissioner to New Orleans to protect and take charge of the Government interests. There was no delay whatever on his part in the premises.

—The railway stock market is reported dull and unsettled. The bulls appear disposed to encourage weak appearances in order to draw "shorts" into their net; but the bears are cautious; there is, however, probably a steady increase in the "short" interest. We understand that the leading operator in Erie has offered "puts" on Erie at 64, on 20 days. The late advance on Erie has caused purchases from London; we hear of one lot of six thousand shares to arrive early. The following are to-day's quotations as received by Mr. Bryan:

—A Philadelphia paper says:

"The Treasury Department is still endeavoring to withdraw from circulation the bills of failed national banks. The task is a difficult one. The Laconia National Bank (N. H.) having been chartered without circulation, the Comptroller agrees to give it an amount of national notes equal to the bills it will collect of the suspended institutions. The Laconia therefore offers the very liberal commission of two per cent. on all such notes retired to them."

The scramble among the national banks for currency, which we infer from the foregoing paragraph to be commencing, offers a new aspect of the working of the banking law which well merits to be watched. That the Comptroller of the Currency has made any such bargain as is imputed to him may well be doubted. He has no legal power to do so. The speculators and banks that are offering 2 per cent. premium for broken bank notes will be likely to meet a deserved disappointment. If any new national bank notes are to be issued in place of those withdrawn, they must be distributed on some more just and equitable principle than that of rewarding smart banks and keen speculators.

—The condition of English railways is unsatisfactory, and their management appears to be nearly as bad as that of American lines. The public distrusts it, and therefore shows a reluctance to subscribe fresh capital to meet existing difficulties, and to pay off the debentures held by persons who do not wish them renewed. Extravagance in management was fostered by the new company mania and general financial inflation in England which followed the outbreak of the war in this country, and the panic of last May showed the weakness of the companies which had been sustained in an apparently prosperous condition by borrowed money and a postponement of the day of reckoning in various other ways. Since that time railway companies seem to have been going from bad to worse, owing to the unwillingness of investors to loan them money to complete improvements and extensions already entered upon.

MILWAUKEE FLOUR AND WHEAT MARKET.

Special Correspondence of Pittsburgh Commercial.

MILWAUKEE, WIS., May 13, 1867.

Throughout the past week operations in our grain and flour market have been quiet and steady, and although fluctuations in the price of wheat have been constant and rapid, the fluctuations have not covered a very large scale of figures. Our receipts in wheat have improved, though not sufficient to balance the shipping and local demand. Notwithstanding there is no apparent margin between the East and our market in favor of shipment, it is noticeable that orders constantly deplete our stock, and we sent from our elevators during the past week a fraction over 96,000 bushels, while our receipts have been a fraction over 67,000 bushels, leaving an estimated remainder in store of 93,874 bushels; being a deficiency upon estimate of the first of the month of 42,466 bushels. In this way is our stock steadily decreased, while our local demands for milling purposes would about consume two-thirds of the 96,000 bushels now remaining in store, were they to run to their capacity a week. We have understood that several of the city mills will close down soon, on account of the high prices and scarcity of wheat, while many of those located in the country have been compelled to close for the same reasons. Flour has been inactive, but with no disposition to decline from prices which seem to be firmly established. No increase in our stock, which continues light in all grades. Oats and corn have been active, and advanced, but at present the reverse is the case, and we rule dull and weak. Rye has been steady and unvarying in price. The following quotations are ruling in our market: Wheat—No. 1, $2 95; No. 2, $2 83; No. 3, $2 67. Oats—No. 1, 75c; No. 2, 73c. Corn—No. 1, $1 10; new, $1 02. Rye—$1 55. Barley—$1 25. Flour—City double extras at $15 75@14 50; country double extras $13 50@13 75; extras, $12 75@13 37½.

Very respectfully,
MOWER, CHURCH & BELL.

San Francisco Market.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 9.—Flour active and firm; New York demand unabated at $6 50@7 00; Oregon $6 25. Wheat quiet at $2 00@2 10. Legal tenders 74.

FAMILY MARKET.

LIVING EXPENSES IN PITTSBURGH.

CAREFULLY REVISED EVERY WEDNESDAY.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
WEDNESDAY, May 15, 1867.

Our market is abundantly supplied with the various articles of daily consumption. Although the spring season has been backward in the growth of vegitation, yet there is a good supply in the market, but held, generally, at high figures. Every week is adding something new to the list. Cucumbers are coming forward pretty freely, and new potatoes and peas have made their appearance. Fish are abundant and lower. There are all kinds of fresh meats on the market, but the most abundant sort belongs to the "scallawag" order—or "Pharoah's lean kine." There are a few butchers in the market who never kill anything but choice cattle, for which they pay some 9c ⅌ ℔ on the hoof, and have very little profit; but the majority of the butchers buy nothing but "scallawags," for which they pay some 6c ⅌ ℔ on the hoof—and sell the meat at the same price as those who buy the best, and, consequently, make large profits. Some butchers go to the stock yards and select such cattle as are unable to travel any further East; such hogs as chance to have a broken leg, and sheep in the same condition, and sometimes worse—for we have heard of stalls in the market, last year, every piece of mutton in them having been taken from sheep suffering with the foot rot. There is no person who has official authority to act as an inspector of meats, or if there is, he should, ere the summer season sets in, go to work and find out what kind of sheep some butchers supplied their unsuspecting customers with the whole of last summer, what kind of hogs have been picked up in the Central and Allegheny Stock Yards, during the past winter, and sold in the Diamond market, unfit for food; for a hog with a broken leg, received in car transportation from the West, cannot be otherwise than laboring under a raging fever. These are well known facts, and we merely give a hint to those in authority to commence work, delayed too long, and for customers to keep a sharp look-out in selecting meats. There is very little poultry in the market, and it commands high prices. We quote the retail price for first class articles as follows:

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
THURSDAY EVENING, May 16, 1867.

There is but little change to note in regard to the state of the trade. Business continues dull and confined strictly to the wants of consumption. Current prices in the general market remain unchanged from our last quotations. Flour continues active. Groceries are in moderate demand. There has been considerable business doing, compared with other branches of trade, in bacon and lard. In regard to other articles of general produce we have nothing worthy of notice to remark.

The receipts of leading articles of produce, per river and railroad, since our last, were as follows: Flour, 1,472 bbls; apples, 65 bbls; cheese, 13 boxes; corn, 2,680 sacks; barley, 275 sacks; wheat, 300 sacks; rye, 775 sacks; oats, 422 sacks, and butter, 59 pkgs.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices, unless otherwise stated:

APPLE BUTTER—We note sales of several packages at 75c ⅌ gallon.

BUTTER—The market, under increased supplies of new, has been weak for some time past, but prices remain unchanged from our last. We quote choice roll dull, from store, at 20@23c ⅌ ℔, and in order to effect sales, lower prices have been taken in some cases. There is no demand except for choice new articles.

BROOMS—Sales reported of No. 2 Western at $2 2 ⅌ dozen.

BEANS—prime Beans are active and wanted at $2 75@3 00 ⅌ bush.

CHEESE—There is but a moderate demand. New W. R. Cheese is coming in quite freely and selling from store at 14@16c ⅌ ℔. Goshen is quoted at 21c ⅌ ℔. Sales of Switzer were made at 19@20c ⅌ ℔.

EGGS—There is rather an active market and prices are firm at 16@16½c ⅌ dozen for those in good order. Sales reported of 30 bbls at those figures.

FRUIT—Choice green apples are scarce and in demand at prices ranging from $5 50@8 ⅌ bbl, as to quality. We note sales of 7 bbls at $7 and 10 bbls at $8 ⅌ bbl. There is still a considerable stock of inferior articles in store, which are sold at nominal prices. Domestic dried fruits continue dull, and prices nominal, ranging from store at 8@10c ⅌ ℔ for apples, and 12@20c ⅌ ℔ for peaches. This is a wide range of prices, but in order to effect sales there are considerable concessions made from the regular quotations, varying according to qualities.

FISH—We notice sales of 200 half barrels Lake Herring at $2 25, each.

FLOUR—There has been no particular change in the market since our last report. The stock in market of choice brands is not heavy and is held by a few leading houses, that seem disposed to sell at fair rates. Considerable Flour has changed hands to-day at the quotations given in this morning's paper of yesterday's market. Choice Spring Wheat brands old at $14 75@15 ⅌ barrel, although we have a reported sale of 400 barrels at $15@15 25. We quote the following brands: Jenkins's Lilly and Eureka, $15 50; Dayton Snow Flake, $15 75@16, and Desplaine's, $14 75.

GRAIN—In regard to Wheat we have no remarks to make different from those given for several days past. We have no reported sales. The receipts are light and on account of millers. No. 2 Milwaukee is quoted by one firm at $2 90@2 95 ⅌ bushel. Prices are entirely nominal.

CORN—The market is dull. We have a reported sales of 2 cars No. 1 shelled, on the track, at $1 00 ⅌ bushel and of car corn at 90@95c per bushel. The New York Commercial List of Wednesday says: The principal feature in the grain market, since the last issue of that paper, on Saturday last, has been the heavy decline in Corn, a result of the peaceful solution of the Franco-Prussian question, and the large receipts of new Western and Southern, which, being for the most part unfit for export or storing, has been forced upon the market, thus leading to a reduction of 12@19c from last Friday's currency. Notwithstanding the reduced supply of old, prices of this description have also declined 10@12c, the market being unfavorably affected both by the pressure to sell new and the firmness of the ocean freights. Sales 210,000 bush, yesterday's transactions at $1 00@1 15 for new Western mixed and yellow; $1 19 in store, and $1 20@1 22 delivered, for old Western mixed; $1 20@1 23 for white Southern; $1 22@1 24 for yellow Southern, and 80c for damaged Western mixed.

OATS—We note sales of 400 bush on the wharf at 68c ⅌ bush; 500 bush to arrive, buyer furnishing sacks, at [illegible] ⅌ bush; 200 bush, from store, at 65c, and 400 bush from store, at 66c ⅌ bush.

RYE—The market remains as last quoted. Sales reported of 300 bush at $1 65 ⅌ bush.

HAY—We quote sales on the wharf of 5 tons in [illegible] at $12 ⅌ ton, and 1 car, on the track, at $25 [illegible]

POTATOES—We note sales of 20 bbls Neshannocks [illegible] P. B. potatoes are quoted, from store at [illegible] ⅌ bbl, and 95c@$1 ⅌ bush.

[illegible]waukee Market.

MILWAUKEE, May 16.—Flour dull; XX $12@14 25; [illegible] Wheat closed firm, at $2 91@2 93 for No. 1; $2 61 for No. 3; $2 28 for rejected. [illegible] 2; [illegible] at $1 for No. 2, and 68@76c for No. [illegible]

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
FRIDAY, May 17, 1867.

BUSINESS—The market yesterday exhibited more activity. Dealers were more disposed to come to terms. Holders of crude were firm and not disposed to part with their stocks below 7c. Sales were made the day previous at 6¾c. The sales, although not large, exceed those of the previous day very materially. The receipts were 7,233 bbls of crude, a portion of which goes to fill previous contracts, leaving only a limited amount to be disposed of. We note the following operations, viz: Crude—Sales of 600 bbls bulk, on the spot, at 7c; sales 975 bbls do. bulk, on the spot, 7c; sales 1,400 bbls, bulk, on the spot, 7c, being equal to 12c, bbls included.

ALLEGHENY CATTLE MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL,
THURSDAY, May 16, 1867.

CATTLE—The market since our last was well supplied. The number weighed at the scales were 673 head. Prices have undergone no quotable change. The demand was confined almost exclusively to lots to meet the wants of the home trade. The Eastern dealers were not on hand. The sales, however, exceed those of last week. The offerings would undoubtedly been larger had it not been for the difficulty in procuring cars at Chicago. The asking rates were: Prime qualities, $8 25@8 75 ⅌ cwt; extra, $9 00@9 25; stock cattle, $5 00@6 50. The sales and rates for the past two weeks were:

May 9	630	$5 50@9 50
May 16	689	5 50@9 50

Being an increase in sales of 59 head.

HOGS—The season being over, we have but few sales to record. The rates were a shade lower. The sales and prices for the past two weeks were as follows:

May 9	75	$7 50@8 00
May 16	100	6 50@8 00

SHEEP—The offerings this week were larger than last, and prices were a shade higher. The principal operations were to retailers, at an advance. The sales for the past two weeks were as follows:

May 9	250	$6 00@8 00
May 16	200	7 00@8 50

LUMBER MARKETS.

CHICAGO.

Within the last twenty-four hours upwards of sixty-five vessels laden with lumber have arrived at this port, says the Chicago Tribune of Tuesday, being the largest fleet of the season. In consequence of the liberal receipts, the market in the early part of the day dragged, buyers holding off for lower prices. But as soon as it became evident that dealers were unwilling to make concessions, buyers took hold with considerable animation, and during the greater portion of the afternoon cargoes moved off quite readily. The demand for choice grades continues unabated, and as the receipts of these qualities are light, full prices are realized. Common grades are dull and heavy, and buyers and holders are apart in their views from $1@3. Shingles are in light demand, and on "A" or Star Sawed we note a decline of 25c. Lath are in fair inquiry and firm. At the yards there is an active demand, both on interior and local account, and the market rules firm at quotations. Cargo sales afloat include the following:

Schr L. C. Irwin, from Grand River, with 75 m ft common mixed rafted at $16 50, on basis of 50 per cent for strips and $2 00 for all over 50 per cent strips. Schr E. C. Roberts, from Alpena, with 12 m ft wide common, 124 m ft 1st, 2d and 3d clear, 5 m ft culls, 48 m ft strips, and 13 m ft joists, at $23 00, delivered on cars. Schr George Irwin, from White Lake, with 55 m ft common mixed at $19 00, delivered on Washington Pier. Schr Ashtabula, from Grand River, with 52,341 ft strips and 29,605 m ft mixed, both at $20 00; 8,600 lath at $4 25. Schr J. Webber, from Bay Settlement with 60 m "A" sawed shingles and 60 m ft mixed at $17 00. Scow Supply, from Pentwater, with 500 m (M. S. & Co.) "A" sawed shingles at $4 50, delivered on contract. Schr Gazelle, from Muskegon, with 90 m ft 3-5 strips, balance boards, at $21 00. Schr C. E. Bailey, from White Lake, with 100 m ft common mixed at $17 00, and 20 m lath at $4 25. Schr Illinois, from Muskegon, with 83 m ft ½ strips, balance mixed, at $21 00. Schr Anon, from Kalamazoo, with 70 m ft mixed mill-run, at $10 for culls, $17 for common, and $35 for uppers. Schr Sea Gem, from Two Rivers, with 90 m ft ½ strips, balance mixed, at $12 for culls, $20 for common, and $40 for uppers, and 40 m lath at $4 25. Schr Minnesota, from Menominee, with 160 m ft ½ strips, balance mixed, at $20. Schr Monsoon, from Muskegon, with 96 m ft ½ strips, balance mixed, at $19, and 131 m lath at $4 25. Schr Flora, from Kalamazoo, with 80 m ft ½ strips and scantling, balance boards and timber, at $17. Scow Chaplu, from Muskegon, with 70 ft ½ strips, balance common mixed, at $17. Scow Lewis Ludington, from Sturgeon Bay, with 125 m ft strips, at $20, — m mixed at $17, and — m lath at $4 25. Schr H Rand, from Muskegon, with 40 m ft strips, 59 m ft boards and 7 m ft mixed at $20. Towards the close of the day some twenty cargoes were left over unsold.

The Republican, of Wednesday, twenty-four hours later than the above, says that there were liberal receipts again to-day, and quite a number of cargoes were left on the market from the previous day's receipts, and caused more than the usual depression in prices, especially on the lower qualities of lumber. It is safe to say that prices were fully $1@1 50 ⅌ m lower, and sales were slow throughout, buyers and sellers being apart in their views. The bulk of the cargoes offering comprise ordinary and medium qualities. Good and choice lumber is wanted, and would command full prices. Shingles are in only moderate request, and prices are not firm. Lath meet with a fair demand and are steady. In the yards there is a good business doing.

CINCINNATI.

The Gazette, of Tuesday, says the receipts of rafts by river have been large, but owing to the difference between the views of buyers and sellers transactions have been light. Buyers are willing to pay $24@25 ⅌ 1,000 feet, but $2@3 more are asked. Seasoned lumber at the yards is dull at previous prices.

THE RIVER AND MATTERS ALONG THE WHARF.—The weather yesterday was pleasant, just for a change. Both rivers are in good navigable order. The marks on the Monongahela indicated eight feet, and on the Allegheny nine feet large and falling. Dispatches from Oil City report five feet and falling. The tow-boats in port are again making preparations for another start. The following expect to get off in this water—Eagle, Mary Ann, Resolute, Coal City, Samson, Tom Rees and N. J. Bigley. At a low estimate, they will take out one million bushels of coal. The Bayard left yesterday on time, for Parkersburg, with a good trip; the packet for this day is the Leni Leoti. She leaves at noon. The Ingomar left for Matamoras on time, with a moderate trip. The Chieftain, Captain Abrams, has resumed her place in the People's Line. She has been painted and fitted up and looks handsome. The Belle is announced for Cincinnati on Saturday. The Kenton is the only boat loading for Memphis and New Orleans. She will have dispatch. The Lorena, a first-class boat, is receiving for Cairo and St Louis. The packet Julia No. 2, is announced for Cincinnati and Nashville.

CAPT. L. VANDERGRIFT is in town, making arrangements for a new side-wheel packet.

THE steamer Leonidas was loading at Cincinnati for New Orleans.

THE steamer Belle left Cincinnati on time. She will return to this port on Satuday next at noon. Passengers and shippers can bear this in mind.

THE following steamers were advertised to leave Cincinnati for this port on Wednesday: Kate Putnam, Minnie and Ida Rees.

THE Mary Davidge, with a tow of coal for Cairo, passed down yesterday from above. She shoved through the canal.

FAST TIME.—The Atlantic, from St. Louis, arrived at New Albany, Tuesday night, having made the run from St. Louis in thirty-six hours.

LEFT CINCINNATI.—Capt. Frank Maratta, of the Golden Eagle, left for Rochester, Pennsylvania, in Wednesday night's train.

THE fleet packet Belle will return to Cincinnati on Saturday, from the foot of Wood street. A clerk will be on the landing to receive freight on Friday morning.

THE punctual packet Robert Moore, Captain Kerr, leaves this day at 4 P. M. for Portsmouth and intermediate ports. We are indebted to her officers for attention.

BOATS IN PORT.—Above the bridge, Gallatin, Chieftain, Elector, Elizabeth. Below, Julia No. 2, Glendale, R. C. Gray, Lorena, Maggie Hays, Leni Leoti, Kenton.

THE first class packet Lorena, Captain Shuman, leaves for Cairo, St. Louis and St. Paul on Saturday. This boat has unsurpassed accommodations, and is in charge of clever and attentive officers.

TOW BOATS.—The following named boats are making ready to leave on the present rise, viz: Coal City, Resolute, Samson, Tom Rees, N. J. Bigley, Mary Ann, Eagle. Arrived since our last—Niagara, Ella and Samson.

THE punctual steamer Leni Leoti, Capt. Hamilton, leaves at noon for Parkersburg and intermediate ports. This boat is well found in every respect and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Our old friend Captain Shepperd does the honors in the office.

HO! FOR THE SUNNY SOUTH.—The fine packet Kenton, Captain Dunlap, is announced for New Orleans direct, being her third trip this Spring. This boat is noted for superior accommodations and attentive officers. Call early and secure a stateroom.

THE Importer is on her way from St. Louis with the following freight: For Pittsburgh—175 tons iron ore, 4 kegs nails, 9 barrels fire clay, 22 carboys, 20 bales hemp and a lot of household goods. Sunfish—275 hides.

TUESDAY'S Louisville Democrat has the following: The Greyhound came up over the falls yesterday like a shot out of a cannon. The Lake Erie came up with a barge. They are about the best towboats on the river.

THE handsome steamer Chieftain, of the People's Line, has resumed her trips to Brownsville and Geneva. She has been placed in thorough and complete repair and is commanded by Capt. R. R. Abrams—a clever and attentive officer. Capt. R. Mason has charge of the office.

PRETTY HARD ON THE RICHMOND.—The Louisville Democrat, in noticing one of the boilers of the steamer Urselle that exploded at Cincinnati in 1863, being still in use in Maysville says: "We suppose it is a low-pressure one, as it is so old it won't stand more than 20 or 30 pounds pressure to the square inch."

THE Ida Rees, at Cincinnati, reshipped her freight as follows: 60 tons for Louisville on the Buell, 30 tons for New Orleans on the Groesbeck, 10 tons for Nashville on the Rowena, and 12 tons for Saint Louis and Memphis on the Nightingale and Sam. J. Hale.

ANOTHER RUN OF COAL.—The late rise in the river has caused another movement among the coal-boatmen. The following boats will depart during the day. Others are making ready. The present amount is 610,000 bushels, as follows: For Louisville—Eagle, 9 barges, 100,000 bushels; N. J. Bigley, 7 barges, 75,000 bushels; Ella, 7 barges, 75,000 bushels; Resolute, 9 barges, 100,000 bushels. For Cincinnati—Samson, 10 barges, 110,000 bushels. For Memphis—Diamond, 15 barges, containing 150,000 bushels.

THE Ajax broke a shaft in the lower Ohio a few days ago, and is coming "on one wheel."—Louisville Democrat.

When the Ajax left this port some days since, she had but one wheel, will the Democrat reporter inform us where she obtained the other?

FORT SMITH.—The Standard, of the 7th instant, says:

The Pilgrim came into port Friday, with a good freight trip. She left for Little Rock the same day. The Ozark arrived here on Friday noon. She was heavily loaded. She returned to Little Rock same evening.

PETROLEUM FOR FUEL.—The Louisville Courier says:

Parties in this city are about being organized to introduce petroleum or coal oil for fuel for steamboats, in lieu of either coal or wood. It will work a revolution in steamboating on our Western waters, and save a great expense.

THE Rock Island bridge is decidedly a dangerous and damaging structure to steamboats and other floating property, as will be seen by the following paragraph:

"A raft containing 800,000 feet of lumber, which passed Dubuque a few days since, was totally demolished at the Rock Island bridge on Wednesday. It belonged to Schulberg & Boeckler of St. Louis. No lives were lost."

WEDNESDAY'S Cincinnati Gazette on the situation:

Business continues only moderately active. Indeed, for this time of the season, it may safely be termed dull. The tonnage in port is greatly in excess of the requirements, and as boats are compelled to wait turns in receiving, very many are now lying at the wharf, like which quotation suits the poetic ideas of the Louisville Courier better than the original.

"Painted ships upon a painted ocean."

A HEAVY TRADE.—We learn that Captain John B. Ford has closed a trade with Montgomery, Ford & Co., of New Albany by which he exchanges the new steamer Dexter, now on the stocks at Jeffersonville, for the glass works in New Albany. The gentlemen who have thus come in possession of one of the finest, and, perhaps, the fastest boat ever built in this section, are admirably qualified for their new vocation, and will stand among the most popular of our river men. We hope both parties will profit by the trade.

Two new side wheel steamers for the Cincinnati packet trade. Arrangements are nearly completed for the building of two first-class side wheel steamers to make weekly trips between this port and Cincinnati. They will be 225 feet long, 34 feet beam and 5 feet hold; cylinders, 24 inches in diameter, 8 feet stroke; four 40-inch boilers 28 feet long; water wheels 30 feet in diameter, with 12 feet buckets. The cabins will be among the handsomest ever built. They will be fitted out and furnished in splendid style. Both of these boats will be on the track in the fall. We shall have more to say in a short time.

NEWS FROM THE MOUNTAIN FLEET—PROSPECT NOT FLATTERING.—We are indebted to the St. Louis papers for the following:

Mr. Melton, of the well-known firm of Melton & Taylor, Fort Benton, yesterday received a letter from the Fort which gives everything but a flattering prospect for the fleet of steamers now on their way up. The weather is reported dry and dusty, snow disappearing rapidly without rain. River very low, and no hopes of any material rise. Teamsters are making preparations to go down and meet the boats.

Three more steamers took their departure yesterday for Fort Benton and the gold country, making, so far, 38 boats that have left this spring, and there are still two more announced to leave. Montana left Omaha May 5: Carrie passed up on the 6th; met Tacony above Bellevue; Lily below Plattsmouth; G. W. Graham and G. A. Thompson at Hurricane Island; Evening Star at Wyoming; Marcella above Nebraska City; Nymph No. 2 above Peru; Jennie Brown at Peru. 7th—Met R. M. Bishop above Bon Ton; Luella above St. Joseph; Agnes at St. Joseph; Ned Tracy below Palermo; General B. Allen passed up. 8th—Met Cornelia below Sumner; Viola Belle below Kansas City; Columbian above Wayne City; Little Rock below Liberty. 9th—Met Glasgow above Lexington; War Eagle above Keytesville; Lady Gay below Frankford. 10th—Met Lady Grace above Cambridge; H. S. Turner above Sandy Hook; Sam Gaty above Stanleys; Post Boy and Lexington at Jefferson City; Richmond below St. Aubert's; Silver Lake No. 4 at Gasconade. 11th—Met W. L. Lewis at Missourion.
